Limpopo Prelim Life Science 2014:

Handbook of Research on Protecting and Managing Global Indigenous Knowledge Systems Tshifhumulo, Rendani, Makhanikhe, Tshimangadzo Justice, 2021-10-08 Indigenous knowledge systems IKS are a combination of knowledge systems encompassing technology social economic and philosophical learning or educational legal and governance systems The lack of documentation of these systems presents a problem as the knowledge is fading away over time In response it is essential that policies and strategies are undertaken to ensure that these systems are protected and sustained for generations to come The Handbook of Research on Protecting and Managing Global Indigenous Knowledge Systems is a comprehensive reference source that works to preserve indigenous knowledge systems through research Focusing on key concepts such as tools of indigenous knowledge management and African indigenous symbols the book preserves and promotes indigenous knowledge through research and fills the void staff and students within the field of indigenous knowledge systems face with the current lack of research and resources This book is ideal for university students lecturers researchers academicians policymakers historians sociologists and anyone interested in the field of indigenous knowledge systems

Working with indigenous knowledge Fhumulani M. Mulaudzi, Rachel T. Lebeso, 2022 The aim of the book is to assist both local and international scholars in articulating the scholarly discourse on indigenous health attitudes practices and experiences The indigenous lens that was used to generate and disseminate indigenous knowledge in this book will strengthen indigenous scholarship thus making it accessible to a wider audience In addition the information shared in this book will add value for scholars and assist them with the indigenous knowledge needed to address sustainable development goals This book is timeless and topical as the discourse on the decolonisation of the curriculum is widely debated in the higher education space The discourse on the scholarship of indigenous knowledge as the tacit local knowledge that stems from cultural practices within communities has not been well articulated in the current health science education milieu Indigenous knowledge has remained overlooked and undermined for a very long time and the information remains untapped in local communities The scholars who conducted the research on which this book is based unearthed a wealth of knowledge which was tacit in nature and translated it into implicit knowledge that can be documented and shared with other scholars globally This knowledge will assist health care scholars in benefiting from knowledge practices and cultural beliefs that will assist them in health care planning teaching evidence based practice and further research

Management and Practices of Pilgrimage Tourism and Hospitality Gupta, S.K., Aragon, Lilibeth C., Kumar, Pankaj, Madhurima, Ramasamy, Rajesh, 2023-10-09 Pilgrimage is one of the oldest extant and most basic forms of population mobility known to human society and its political social cultural and economic implications have always been and continue to be substantial In recent decades a new focus on pilgrimage has emerged through the lens of tourism which explores the political cultural behavioral economic and geographical impacts Therefore the identification of challenges in transformation and emerging ways and means of managing pilgrimage and related destinations is critical in an era of crises and disastrous situations Management and Practices of Pilgrimage Tourism and Hospitality identifies understands and recognizes the changing facts and facets of pilgrimage tourism around the world It develops and promotes pilgrimage tourism for community integration faith sharing perseverance tolerance and pace for secular and sustainable futures This book further identifies any new issues scopes challenges and entrepreneurial opportunities for pilgrimage tourism as are found to be relevant and important for future pilgrimages with larger intensity and frequency Covering topics such as behavioral challenges community empowerment and pilgrimage economy this book is an essential resource for entrepreneurs professionals researchers academicians policymakers students of higher education sociologists and more Fashioning Inland Communities Yaari Felber-Seligman, 2025 When viewed from the economic centers of the Indian or Atlantic Oceans the Ruvuma region of East Africa crossing what is now Tanzania Malawi and Mozambique would look like a periphery But the same factors that marginalize the region historically brought distinct opportunities In Fashioning Inland Communities Yaari Felber Seligman traces the long history from the first millennium CE into the twentieth century of Ruvuma trade practices within a changing world Felber Seligman argues that Ruvuma trade should be understood fundamentally as a set of voluntary choices undertaken and revised to further communities aspirations Ruvuma used fashion to build varied communities from local to pan regional reflecting the dynamic relationships among inland groups Examples of Ruvuma popular fashions reveal processes of meaning making and community building that call for us to expand our attention to the ways in which East African peoples interacted alongside as well as beyond trade networks that sourced prestige and commercial goods Popular culture here emerges as a heterarchical force that shaped lasting multidirectional connections across and between Ruvuma and their neighbors As both a subject and a strategy for analysis the history of popular fashion shifts how we view histories of small decentralized societies as they encounter larger economies Felber Seligman demonstrates that this has implications for our understanding not only of trade but of material culture community gender and family Glencoe Science: Life Science
