Life In 1940s London:

Life in 1940s London Mike Hutton, 2013-09-15 The story of a turbulent decade for our iconic capital The 1940s: A Decade of Modern British Fiction Philip Tew, Glyn White, 2022-02-24 How did social cultural and political events concerning Britain during the 1940s reshape modern British fiction During the Second World War and in its aftermath British literature experienced and recorded drastic and decisive changes to old certainties Moving from potential invasion and defeat to victory the creation of the welfare state and a new Cold war threat the pace of historical change seemed too rapid and monumental for writers to match Consequently the 1940s were often side lined in literary accounts as a dividing line between periods and styles Drawing on more recent scholarship and research this volume surveys and analyses this period s fascinating diversity from novels of the Blitz and the Navy to the rise of important new voices with its contributors exploring the work of influential women Commonwealth exiled genre avant garde and queer writers A major critical re evaluation of the intriguing decade this book offers substantial chapters on Elizabeth Bowen Graham Greene and George Orwell as well as covering such writers as Jocelyn Brooke Monica Dickens James Hadley Chase Patrick Hamilton Gerald Kersh Daphne Du Maurier Mary Renault Denton Welch and many others Crime Scene London Mike Hutton, 2025-04-28 Chronicles London s 1500 year history of crime from poverty driven acts to notorious figures and scandals shaping the city s dark legacy London has a history that emerges from the mist of time some 1500 years ago and is one that evolves yet never ends It has always been a breeding ground for crime as people from around the world are drawn by its numerous attractions and opportunities Each generation has produced its own colourful cast of robbers murderers and fraudsters Much of the crime was prompted by poverty and foul living conditions but the main driver has always been the desire or need for money by whatever means and the risks involved Until the eighteenth century this often involved a trip to perform the Tyburn jig in front of a baying crowd of thousands For a time Londoners staggered around in a gin induced haze Mothers often abandoned or even sold their children just for a chance to block out the horrors of a seething London The lanes and alleys around Covent Garden were lined with prostitutes many still children Famous beauties were kept by aristocrats and royalty and referred to as courtesans although in many cases the dividing line between them and their less fortunate sisters lining the streets was thin indeed The ending of the Great War saw the appearance of drugs although at this stage they were mainly confined to the rich and influential as London entered the jazz age The second world war and the Blitz was not all about the spirit and bravery of Londoners as gangs plundered wrecked houses and even stole from corpses After the war the likes of the violent Jack Spot and Billy Hill were superseded by the Kray twins and the sadistic Richardson brothers as they fought for control of London s drinking clubs A little light relief was offered throughout the years by a succession of sexual scandals Those particularly welcome involved senior politicians A heady brew indeed covering centuries of crimes and indiscretions brought together this very readable account by author and social historian Mike Hutton American Women Painters of the 1930s and 1940s Robert Henkes,1991 Studie over 10 vrouwelijke kunstenaressen hun creatieve ontwikkeling gedurende de crisis in de dertiger jaren en de Tweede Wereldoorlog Master Drawings from the Smith College Museum of Art Smith College. playing field so that everyone has a chance at living a rewarding life Guill n unveils how this generational revolution will impact young people just entering the workforce as well as those who are living and working longer This multigenerational revolution is already happening and Mauro Guill n identifies the specific cultural organizational and policy changes that need to be made in order to switch to a new template and usher in a new era of innovation powered by the perennials The Changing Life of London George Gardiner,1973 A Woman in Wartime London Kathleen Tipper,2006 Kathleen Margaret Tipper was born 24 May 1919 in London England Her parents were Charles Edwin Tipper and Alice Mary Rawson Paul Henry S.
