✓ Ans: Yoga is an ancient practice that was passed down orally for at least 5,000 years.

✓ Ans: Born in India, studied with Bishnu Ghosh, moved to California and worked with Hollywood stars to help them stay in shape. He became famous for his hot yoga classes.

✓ Ans: 26 postures and 2 breathing exercises, practiced in the same order and for the same length time, in a heated setting, in every Bikram class around the world. This form of yoga works out every cell in your body—every muscle, gland and tissue. Poses are static and held for intense periods of time, with rests (in corpse pose) in between. The first breathing exercise in Bikram warms the body from the inside out.

✓ Ans: A specific set of poses, done in a specific order to bring benefit to the entire body. Practiced as a flow class—each pose leads into another pose, with several vinyasas in between. The sun salutations in the primary series warm the body from the outside in.

✓ Ans: Often used as a verb to describe the flow/transition in yoga class. When used as a noun, it refers to these 3 poses: chaturanga, upward facing dog, and downward facing dog. These 3 postures are used to reset the body between poses in an Ashtanga class.
