Life In A Postcard:

Life In A Postcard Rosemary Bailey, 2013-04-29 I wake to the sun striking gold on a stone wall If I lean out of the window I can see Mount Canigou newly iced with snow It is wonderful to live in a building with windows all around to see both sunrise and sunset to be constantly aware of the passage of the sun and moon In 1988 Rosemary Bailey and her husband were travelling in the French Pyrenees when they fell in love with and subsequently bought a ruined medieval monastery surrounded by peach orchards and snow capped peaks Traces of the monks were everywhere in the frescoed 13th century chapel the buried crypt the stone arches of the cloister For the next few years the couple visited Corbiac whenever they could until in 1997 they took the plunge and moved from central London to rural France with their six year old son Entirely reliant on their earnings as freelance writers they put their Apple Macs in the room with the fewest leaks and sent Theo to the village school With vision and determination they have restored the monastery to its former glory testing their relationship and resolve to the limit and finding unexpected inspiration in the place Life in a Postcard is not just Rosemary Bailey s enthralling account of the challenges of life in a small mountain community but also a celebration of the rugged beauty of French Catalonia the pleasures of Catalan cooking and an exploration of an alternative often magical world
