Politics and higher education in East Africa from the 1920s to 1970 Bhakithemba R. Mngomezulu, 2012-01-01 The main objective of this book is to establish the salient reasons why higher education was developed in East Africa and specifically why the Federal University of East Africa was constituted The book will identify the factors responsible for the collapse of this regional institution in June 1970 Another objective of this book is to demonstrate how the history of the University of East Africa sheds light on colonial and post colonial policies on education especially higher education as a contribution to educational planning in contemporary Africa Political Penetration and Primordial Attachment at

Makerere University Erie Buseere Mugerwa, 2002 Promoting Gender Equity in Selected Public Universities of Kenya Jane Onsongo, 2011 The purpose of this study was to examine sustainable gender equity interventions in selected public universities The study used descriptive survey and case study research methods to carry out an in depth analysis of the gender equity interventions in selected public universities in Kenya The sample consisted of four public universities that were selected because they had established gender centers institutes that were assumed to be coordinating gender equity intervention The study has the following objectives To establish the existing gender inequalities in the formal organisational structure of the selected universities To identify and assess sustainability of gender equity interventions in the selected public universities To analyse the national regional international and organisational culture and policy contexts that have influenced and supported the introduction of the identified gender equity interventions To investigate the attitudes of staff students and management towards the gender equity interventions and to recommend appropriate institutional strategies to address existing gender inequities Political Penetration and Primordial Attachment at Makerere University

Mugerwa David, 2002 Voyages in Postcolonial African Theatre Practice Charles Nwadike, Kenneth Bamuturaki, 2024-03-25 Voyages in Postcolonial African Theatre Practice goes beyond the predictable academic discursive trips on postcolonial drama and theatre practice In 14 unique but interrelated essays this volume dissects the critical issues that envelop the practice of theatre in postcolonial Africa and the African Diaspora and how practitioners engage with the trends which arise The volume departs from the conventional theoretical constructs of humanistic studies and focuses on concrete realities that interface and interfere with the professional practice of African theatre a creative industry confined by the historical and dialectical motifs of the colonial experience Topics such as secondary adaptations theatre training and pedagogy censorship and performance politics applied theatre cultural policy and tourism scenography festivals and oral
