The Navy List Great Britain. Admiralty, 1878      The Manners and Customs of the Modern Egyptians Edward William Lane, 1923      Personal Names in Cuneiform Texts from Babylonia (c. 750-100 BCE) Caroline Waerzeggers, Melanie M. Groß, 2024-01-18 Personal names provide fascinating testimony to Babylonia's multi ethnic society This volume offers a practical introduction to the repertoire of personal names recorded in cuneiform texts from Babylonia in the first millennium BCE In this period individuals moved freely as well as involuntarily across the ancient Middle East leaving traces of their presence in the archives of institutions and private persons in southern Mesopotamia The multilingual nature of this name material poses challenges for students and researchers who want to access these data as part of their exploration of the social history of the region in the period This volume offers guidelines and tools that will help readers navigate this difficult material The title is also available Open Access on Cambridge Core      The Massachusetts register, 2016      The Manners & customs of the modern Egyptians Edward William Lane, 1908      Handbook of Research on Records and Information Management Strategies for Enhanced Knowledge Coordination Chisita, Collence Takaingenhamo, Enakrire, Rexwhite Tega, Durodolu, Oluwale Olumide, Tsabedze, Vusi Wonderboy, Ngoaketsi, Joseph M., 2021-01-15 The convergence of technologies and emergence of interdisciplinary and transdisciplinary modus of knowledge production justify the need for research that explores the disinterestedness or interconnectivity of the information science disciplines The quantum leap in knowledge production increasing demand for information and knowledge changing information needs information governance and proliferation of digital technologies in the era of ubiquitous digital technologies justify research that employs a holistic approach in x raying the challenges of managing information in an increasingly knowledge and technology driven dispensation The changing nature of knowledge production for sustainable development along with trends and theory for enhanced knowledge coordination deserve focus in current times The Handbook of Research on Records and Information Management Strategies for Enhanced Knowledge Coordination draws input from experts involved in records management information science library science memory and digital technology creating a vanguard compendium of novel trends and praxis While highlighting a vast array of topics under the scope of library science information science knowledge transfer records management and more this book is ideally designed for knowledge and information managers library and information science schools policymakers practitioners stakeholders administrators researchers academicians and students interested in records and information management      States and Public Policy Olivier Provini, 2025-08-03 Why did students start paying tuition fees at African universities How did public universities become increasingly expensive for the large numbers of young people they are supposed to be educating This book helps us to understand the reasons for this and reminds us that change is always the result of political compromise The book looks at the higher education reforms carried out since the 1980s in four East African countries with unique historical and political trajectories Uganda Kenya Tanzania and Burundi Through a rigorous well documented analysis the author provides valuable insights into the fundamental political issues facing development actors in the South the transformation of state intervention the training of national elites and the marketing of the education sector particularly through the highly political issue of school fees

Enhancing Innovation in the Ugandan Agri-Food Sector: Robusta Coffee Planting Material & Tropical Fruit Processing World Intellectual Property Organization, Travis J. Lybbert, Gracious Diiro, Dick Kawooya, Sacha Wunsch-Vincent, 2017 Uganda's innovation performance in recent years has consistently outpaced other low income and Sub Saharan African countries Though encouraging this nascent progress will only benefit the broader Ugandan population if policy makers address specific constraints in the innovation systems of the critical agri food sector which is hampered by low productivity and profitability In this report we explore these constraints using an agricultural value chains framework with particular focus on the Robusta Coffee Planting Material Pipeline and tropical fruit processing

Widening University Access and Participation in the Global South Edward Mboyonga, 2024-12-31 Using a capability approach as an analytical framework this timely volume examines how access to higher education enabled through private universities can transform students lives and contribute to human development in low income countries in the Global South Providing new insights into the contribution of the private higher education sector in Africa's developmental agendas the book offers an alternative to human capital theory by offering an expansive notion on the value of higher education emphasising both the economic and the intrinsic societal and social benefits that come from access to university and raised aspirations The chapters identify and discuss six specific capabilities valued by students that higher education provides This includes epistemological access epistemic contribution aspiration recognition respect and belonging Ubuntu and employability The book foregrounds the voices of students and lecturers to explore students aspirations agency access and participation Ultimately promoting a reconsideration of access to higher education beyond numerical terms by focusing on students access to transformative knowledge as means to promote their freedom to achieve well being the book will appeal to scholars researchers and postgraduate students in higher education African education studies and international and comparative education more broadly
