Jan Dibbets Another Photography:

Jan Dibbets Marcella Beccaria, 2014 Pandora's Box, 2016 Jan Dibbets dissenting and unashamedly biased Pandora's Box offers nothing less than a reinterpretation of the entire history of art photography arguing that scientific photography was the realm where the medium's real innovations happened Scientific photography encouraged a freer more outgoing use of the medium says Dibbets The whole problem with photography is that it was invented at the wrong time As Baudelaire so rightly pointed out the first photographers were doing their best to imitate artists like Ingres and other realists All this imitation blocked the process of emancipation The result of Dibbets alternative history is some 300 images with Nicéphore Niépce Gustave Le Gray tienné Jules Marey and Edward Muybridge rubbing shoulders with photographers less well known but in Dibbets view equally crucial Their direct descendants are Karl Blossfeldt Man Ray Alexander Rodchenko Alfred Stieglitz Paul Strand and more recently Bruce Nauman Augmented with quotations from Baudelaire Le Gray and Alvin Langdon Coburn Dibbets book gives a fascinating and fresh take on the history of the medium Jan Dibbets : the photographic work, 1967-2007 Erik Verhagen, Jan Dibbets, 2007 Figure majeure et incontournable de la scène artistique du dernier tiers du XX^e siècle l'artiste néerlandais Jan Dibbets né en 1941 est l'un des principaux créateurs avoir intégré et ce dès la deuxième moitié des années soixante la photographie au sein des arts plastiques Cet ouvrage qui couvre quarante années de création est la première monographie exhaustive de son œuvre photographique Photography Theory in Historical Perspective Hilde Van Gelder, Helen Westgeest, 2011-04-25 Photography Theory in Historical Perspective Case Studies from Contemporary Art aims to contribute to the understanding of the multifaceted and complex character of the photographic medium by dealing with various case studies selected from photographic practices in contemporary art discussed in the context of views and theories of photography from its inception uses case studies to explain photographic practices in contemporary art and place them in the context of theory presents current debates on theory of photography through comparisons to research of other visual media applicable to vernacular and documentary photography as well as art photography Jan Dibbets--interior Light Jan Dibbets, Rudi Fuchs, Rudolf Herman Fuchs, Gloria Moure, 1991 Jan Dibbets, The Photographic Work Erik Verhagen, 2014-06-26 The first monograph covering Dibbets's iconic photographic oeuvre Dutchman Jan Dibbets b 1941 is one of the principal artists to have introduced photography into the plastic arts and this as early as the 1960s At a time when photography has massively invaded contemporary art institutions not without generating confusion and excess it is not easy to evaluate the full radicality of Dibbets's approach This radicalism has nothing to do with modernist overkill Dibbets did not merely go further than others rather he simply went elsewhere Beginning in 1967 he embarked on a long range project which as we advance into the 21st century he seems not to have abandoned the pictorializing of photography Jan Dibbets is one of the few artists of his generation and reputation not to have seen his oeuvre accorded full monographic coverage This exhaustive study seeks to fill this gap by covering almost fifty years of his photographic oeuvre Color Chart Ann Temkin, 2008 Color Chart celebrates a paradox the lush beauty that results when contemporary artists assign colour decisions to chance readymade source or arbitrary system Midway through the 20th century long held convictions regarding the spiritual truth or scientific validity of particular colours gave way to an excitement about colour as a mass produced and standardized commercial product The Romantic quest for personal expression instead became Andy Warhol's I want to be a machine the artistry of mixing pigments was eclipsed by Frank Stella's Straight out of the can it can't get better than that This book and the exhibition it accompanies is the first devoted to this pivotal transformation and features work by some forty artists ranging from Ellsworth Kelly and Gerhard Richter to Sherrie Levine and Damien Hirst Locating Sol LeWitt David S. Areford, 2021-03-23 A revelatory consideration of the wide ranging practice of one of the most influential American artists of the 20th century A pioneer of minimalism and conceptual art Sol LeWitt 1928 2007 is best known for his monumental wall drawings LeWitt's broad artistic practice however also included sculpture printmaking photography artist's books drawings gouaches and folded and ripped paper works From the familiar to the underappreciated aspects of LeWitt's oeuvre this book examines the ways that his art was multidisciplinary humorous philosophical and even religious Locating Sol LeWitt contains nine new essays that explore the artist's work across media and address topics such as LeWitt's formative friendships with colleagues at the Museum of Modern Art in the early 1960s his photographs of Manhattan's Lower East Side his 1979 collaboration with Lucinda Childs and Philip Glass and its impact on his printmaking and his commissions linked to Jewish history and the Holocaust The essays offer insights into the role of parody experimentation and uncertainty in the artist's practice and investigate issues of site space and movement Together these studies reveal the full scope of LeWitt's creativity and offer a multifaceted reassessment of this singular and influential artist Opening the Box Erik Verhagen, 2025-11-18 Contemporary Photographers, 1982 Jan Dibbets Jan Dibbets, 2004 Jan Dibbets Jan Dibbets, Rudi Fuchs, M.
