1850-1930 Melissa Edmundson, 2018-05-19 This book explores women writers involvement with the Gothic The author sheds new light on women's experience a viewpoint that remains largely absent from male authored Colonial Gothic works The book investigates how women writers appropriated the Gothic genre and its emphasis on fear isolation troubled identity racial otherness and sexual deviancy in order to take these anxieties into the farthest realms of the British Empire The chapters show how Gothic themes told from a woman's perspective emerge in unique ways when set in the different colonial regions that comprise the scope of this book Canada the Caribbean Africa India Australia and New Zealand Edmundson argues that women's Colonial Gothic writing tends to be more critical of imperialism and thereby more subversive than that of their male counterparts This book will be of interest to students and academics interested in women's writing the Gothic and colonial studies A History of Cleveland, Ohio: Biographical Samuel Peter Orth, 1910 Touching the Past Marijke

Deserted Wives and Economic Divorce in 19th-Century England and Wales Jennifer Aston,Olive Anderson,2024-11-14 This book considers Section 21 of the Divorce and Matrimonial Causes Act 1857 and its significant impact on previously invisible married women in the 19th century Tens of thousands of women used this little known section of the Act to apply for orders from local magistrates courts to reclaim their rights of testation inheritance property ownership and dependent on local franchise qualifications ability to vote By examining the orders that were made and considering the women who applied for them the book challenges the mistaken belief that Victorian England and Wales were nations of married cohabiting couples The detailed statistical analysis and rich case studies presented here provide a totally new perspective on the legal status and experiences of married women in England and Wales Although many thousands of orders were granted between 1858 and 1900 their details remain unknown and unexamined primarily because census records did not consistently record dissolved marriages and there is no central index of applications made Using sources including court records parliamentary papers newspaper reports census returns probate records and trade directories this book reconstructs the successful and unsuccessful experiences of women applying to magistrates courts and the Court for Divorce and Matrimonial Causes to protect their assets across regions and decades     Annual Catalogue of the Lawrence University of Wisconsin Lawrence University,1957     Alabama Official and Statistical Register Alabama.
