Recherches sur l'histoire de la France Médiévale Robert-Henri Bautier, 2024-10-28 This selection of articles by Robert Henri Bautier deals with the political and institutional history of France between the 6th and 12th centuries and is above all concerned with the changing extent of the ruler's power from the rise of the Carolingians onwards. A subsequent volume will focus on the Capetians while a further pair of volumes deal with economic history. The first studies here examine two general topics: the emergence of Paris as the undisputed capital of France and the ceremony of Royal coronation and consecration. The following articles on Carolingian France reconsider the significance of the battle of Roncevaux and the importance of the region of Neustria; then study the decomposition of the Carolingian empire in Southern France and Catalonia. The last group is concerned with various aspects of the re-expansion of central power under the early Capetian kings and finally with the evolution of one of the fundamental organs of medieval municipal government: the chevinage. Cette sélection d'articles par Robert Henri Bautier traite de l'histoire politique et institutionnelle française entre le VI^e et le XII^e siècle et s'intéresse avant tout à l'étendue territoriale changeante du pouvoir monarchique dès le début de la dynastie carolingienne. Un volume subséquent se concentre sur les Capétiens et deux autres ont pour thème l'histoire économique. Les premières études incluses dans le présent recueil examinent deux sujets d'ordre général: l'avènement de Paris en tant que capitale incontestable de la France et le développement de la cérémonie du couronnement et de la consécration royale. Les études suivantes considèrent nouveau la signification de la bataille de Roncevaux et l'importance de la région de Neustrie. L'auteur passe ensuite à l'analyse de la désagrégation de l'empire carolingien dans le Midi de la France et en Catalogne. Le dernier groupe d'études concerne divers aspects de la r
