Plus redoutable que la Nature,
craignez la nature humaine...

The poster depicts a desolate, post-apocalyptic landscape. In the center, three survivors—a woman with long brown hair and a white patterned dress, a man with a beard in a white button-down shirt, and a woman with short brown hair in a dark tank top—stand with blood smeared on their faces and clothing. They are flanked by two large, dark, jagged rock formations. On top of these rocks, several silhouetted figures of people are visible, some appearing to be in conflict. The background shows a hazy, orange-tinted sky and distant, ruined buildings. The title 'AFTERSHOCK' is rendered in large, metallic, block letters, with the subtitle 'L'ENFER SUR TERRE' in smaller white letters below it. The name 'ELI ROTH PRÉSENTE' is printed in small white text above the title.
