Lemkin Face Au Geacutenocide:

Totally Unofficial Dan Eshet, 2007 This case study highlighting the story of Raphael Lemkin challenges everyone to think deeply about what it will take for individuals groups and nations to take up Lemkin s challenge To make this material accessible for classrooms this resource includes several components an introduction by Genocide scholar Omer Bartov a historical case study on Lemkin and his legacy questions for student reflection suggested resources a series of lesson plans using the case study and a selection of primary source documents Born in 1900 Raphael Lemkin devoted most of his life to a single goal making the world understand and recognize a crime so horrific that there was not even a word for it Lemkin took a step toward his goal in 1944 when he coined the word genocide which means the destruction of a nation or an ethnic group He said he had created the word by combining the ancient Greek word genos race tribe and the Latin cide killing In 1948 three years after the concentration camps of World War ii had been closed forever the newly formed United Nations used this new word in a treaty that was intended to prevent any future genocides Lemkin died a decade later He had lived long enough to see his word widely accepted and also to see the United Nations treaty called the Convention on the Prevention and Punishment of the Crime of Genocide adopted by many nations But sadly recent history reminds everyone that laws and treaties are not enough to prevent genocide Individual sections contain footnotes
