

SAMPLE LETTER TO CARRY A GUN IN A CHURCH

Dear [Recipient Name],

I hope this letter finds you well. I am writing to discuss an important matter concerning the safety of our congregation. In today's world, many places face threats that concern public safety, including churches.

As a responsible member of the community and a law-abiding citizen, I believe it is necessary to consider the option of allowing trained individuals to carry firearms during church services. The intention is not to create fear but to ensure that we can protect ourselves and our loved ones if the need arises.

I am a licensed gun owner and have received proper training in firearm safety and usage. I understand the responsibilities associated with carrying a weapon.

Warm regards,
[Your Name]
