The Indian National Bibliography ,2017-10 From Social Harm to Zemiology Victoria Canning, Steve Tombs, 2021-03-30 This book outlines key developments in understanding social harm by setting out its historical foundations and the discussions which have proliferated since It examines various attempts to conceptualise social harm and highlights key sites of contestation in its relationship to criminology to argue that these act as the basis for an activist zemiology one directed towards social change for social justice The past two decades have seen a proliferation of debate related to social harm in and around criminology From climate catastrophe and a focus on environmental harms unprecedented deaths generating focus on border harms and the coronavirus pandemic revealing the horror of mass and arguably avoidable deaths across the globe critical studies in social harm appear ever more pressing Drawing on a range of international case studies of cultural emotional physical and economic harms From Social Harm to Zemiology locates the study of social harm in an accessible fashion In doing so it sets out how a zemiological lens can moves us beyond many of the problematic legacies of criminology This book rejects criminologies which have disproportionately served to regulate intersectional groups and which have arguably inflicted as much or more harm by bolstering the very ideologies of control in offering minor reforms that inadvertently expand and strengthen states and corporations It does this by sketching out the contours objects methods and ontologies of a disciplinary framework which rejects commonplace assumptions of value freedom From Social Harm to Zemiology advocates social change in accordance with groups who are most disenfranchised and thus often most socially harmed An accessible and compelling read this book is essential reading for all zemiologists critical criminologists and those engaged with criminological and social theory

Love is Green: Compassion as responsibility in the ecological emergency Lucy Weir, 2020-01-31 This book links three themes non dualistic agency the good of systems and compassionate attunement and relates them to the ecological emergency The author begins by examining how we currently understand our ability to choose what we do our agency and conclude that this is dualistic we think of an action to do and then we physically act Yet an understanding that we are enmeshed in context means our capacity to act freely dissolves in the mesh We evolved capacities for consciousness and awareness capacities that allow us to realise that we are here now but that do not inevitably imply choice Our capacity for realisation gives us the ability to elicit an emotional response When we understand our enmeshment we can attune to a deep compassion for ourselves and indeed for all systems unfolding through time Compassionate attunement allows a different set of options for action to become available to us This then shifts how we respond to ourselves our human relationships and to the ecological emergency we are currently embroiled in This work is inspired by the great Kamakura Zen Master Eihei D gen The book s contribution is to extend and link the notion of practice realisation with the literature on evolutionary biology and entropy maximisation which allows us to speak of the good of systems Systems unfold as good for us when biodiversity maximisation occurs By considering the ecological emergency in light of compassionate attunement we open ourselves to a new array of possibilities for action Some of these the author outlines in the conclusion relating them to existing literature on compassionate achievement and compassionate communication to show how our this practice shifts our relationship to ourselves to one another and to the ecological emergency thus changing the course of human history Indian National Bibliography B. S. Kesavan,2017-12

Introduction to Human Communication Susan R. Beauchamp,Stanley J. Baran,2024-02-16 In Introduction to Human Communication Third Edition authors Susan R Beauchamp and Stanley J Baran show students how central successful communication is to gaining effective control over perception meaning making and identity NICE at 25 Peter Littlejohns,Keith Syrett,2024-08-30 Marking its 25th anniversary this fascinating collection examines the pioneering work of the National Institute for Health and Care Excellence NICE Setting standards for the delivery of healthcare issuing guidance on public health and assessing and making recommendations on health technologies NICE has attracted widespread international attention emulation and comment The authors in this collection drawn from a broad range of disciplinary backgrounds offer analysis of key issues which have informed NICE s work from the principles of health economics to patient engagement to the legal basis on which NICE operates Covering many of the most important themes within contemporary debates on health policy and management today this insightful collection will interest students and researchers as well as policy makers in the field A Charitable Orthopathy John W. Morehead,Brandon C. Benziger,2020-04-07 Evangelicals and other conservative Christians of the twenty first century face enormous challenges in the pluralistic public square not least with Muslims and atheists Contrary to biblical injunctions to keep in step with the Spirit Gal 5 25b and to love our neighbors as ourselves e g Matt 22 37 40 Luke 10 25 37 both of which involve not only behavioral but also important affective elements we often harbor deep seated antipathies toward atheists and adherents of other religions While such feelings are at times justified and help us cope with conflict related tragedies they are also often baseless misconstrued and counterproductive priming us to avoid religious others support discriminatory policies against them and even confront them in verbal or physical ways The purpose of this volume is to offer an academically informed yet practically oriented collection of essays that challenges and encourages Christians to engage their religious neighbors in a much more loving compassionate hopeful and courageous indeed orthopathic manner whether in the realm of politics in debate and conference venues on the mission field or in their own homes schools churches and neighborhoods As such a set of reflection and discussion questions is included to facilitate individual and or group study      The Visual Life of Climate Change Saffron O'Neill, 2025-12-08 Available open access digitally under CC BY NC ND licence Images can play a key role in communication but climate change imagery can be formulaic and narrow in perspective Going beyond polar bears and wildfires this book is a manifesto for opening up the visual discourse on climate Rather than portraying scenarios that can be remote from many people's lives Saffron O'Neill shows how images can be powerful tools to engage viewers and enable them to connect different issues together With engaging case studies and practical advice throughout the book shows how visuals can represent climate change in more diverse equitable inclusive and responsible ways      The Publishers' Circular and Booksellers' Record ,1919      Climate Change and Cities Cynthia Rosenzweig, William D. Solecki, Patricia Romero-Lankao, Shagun Mehrotra, Shobhakar Dhakal, Somayya Ali Ibrahim, 2018-03-29 The Urban Climate Change Research Network's Second Assessment Report on Climate Change in Cities ARC3 2 is the second in a series of global science based reports to examine climate risk adaptation and mitigation efforts in cities The book explicitly seeks to explore the implications of changing climatic conditions on critical urban physical and social infrastructure sectors and intersectoral concerns The primary purpose of ARC3 2 is to inform the development and implementation of effective urban climate change policies leveraging ongoing and planned investments for populations in cities of developing emerging and developed countries This volume like its predecessor will be invaluable for a range of audiences involved with climate change and cities mayors city officials and policymakers urban planners policymakers charged with developing climate change mitigation and adaptation programs and a broad spectrum of researchers and advanced students in the environmental sciences
