Papers of the School of American Research, 1921 The Native American, 1928 Resources in Education, 1991-07 Journal of American Indian Education, 2002 The Emergent Native Americans Deward E. Walker (Jr.), 1972 MASCA Research Papers in Science and Archaeology, 1992 Handbook of Native American Studies and Chronology of Native American History, 1972 Department of Middle American Research of the Tulane University of Louisiana Tulane University. Middle American Research Institute, 1928 Native American Architecture Peter Nabokov, Robert Easton, 1989 Native American Architecture is the first book length fully illustrated study of North American Indian architecture to appear in a century The product of 15 years of research by an architect and an anthropologist the book presents the building traditions of the major tribes in nine regional profiles covering the continent from the huge plank house villages of the Northwest Coast to the Moundbuilder towns and temples of the Southeast to the Navajo hogans and adobe Pueblos of the Southwest This innovative book is far more than a survey of buildings Its multidisciplinary approach offers a broad clear view of the Native American world resulting in a new understanding of the meaning of their buildings and culture Nabokov and Easton describe how Indian buildings as a central element of their culture were the symbolic summation of tribal activity and how the settlements secured for their inhabitants a sense of place in the environment Native American architecture the authors write must be defined as more than buildings villages or camps the definition must include their use of space their environment their social mores and their religious beliefs The book thus introduces us to the ancient social customs economic ways of life and technological skills of each tribe emphasizing the major role played by cosmological concepts and ritual life in their architectural systems Each chapter concludes with an account of traditional Indian building practices under revival or in danger today A visually exciting book using historical photographs and drawings architectural renderings and specially prepared interpretive diagrams which decode the sacred cosmology of the principal houstypes Native American Architecture is a major contribution to the expanding worldwide interest in vernacular architecture a milestone in scholarly investigation and cultural reconstruction Collected Papers from the Institute for Biological Research of the Johns Hopkins University, 1928 Department of middle american research of the tulane university of louisiana; its activities and its aims Tulane University. Middle American Research Institute, 1928 Indian's Friend, 1910

Native American Women's Studies Stephanie A. Sellers, 2008 This introduction to the fundamentals of Native American women s studies first looks at several definitive topics created by the western cultural notion of feminism and western historical and religious perspectives on women These include ecofeminism gender roles and work notions of power essentialism women s leadership sexualities and spirituality in light of gender The book then discusses these concepts and their history from a traditional Native American point of view Foremost among the questions that Native American Women s Studies addresses are How have Native American women governed their nations How was is the divine creatrix expressed in

Native American social systems Most significantly this book sheds light on the radical differences between the indigenous understanding of human experience in terms of gender and that held and created by western culture American Indian Art Magazine ,2004 The Indian World ,1907 The Indian's Friend ,1911 Shakespeare David M. Bergeron,Geraldo U. de Sousa,1995 Confronted with the formidable and at times daunting mass of materials on Shakespeare where does the beginning student or even a seasoned one turn for guidance Answering that question remains the central aim of this guide The Adjustment of Native American Students to Public Schools in the East San Francisco Bay Area Kathryn T. Molohon,1977 Reference Encyclopedia of the American Indian Barry T. Klein,1990 This encyclopedia of the North American Indian includes listings of reservations councils associations schools health services libraries publications and college and university courses in the United States including Alaska and Canada A Proposed Indian Theater in Santa Fé Edgar Lee Hewett,1921
