Letat Social Essais:

Essai sur l'histoire des doctrines du contrat social Frédéric Atger, 1906 Essai ethnographique sur les aborigènes de l'État d'Antioquia, en Colombie André Posada-Arango, 1871 Abnormal Man, Being Essays on Education and Crime and Related Subjects Arthur MacDonald, 1893 Essai sur le mouvement social et intellectuel en France depuis 1789 T. Cerfberr, 1902 Analysing Social Policy Concepts and Language Daniel Béland, Klaus Petersen, 2015-10-07 Social policy scholars and practitioners have long employed concepts such as welfare state and social security but where do these concepts come from and how has their meaning changed over time What characterizes social policy language in different places and how do some social concepts travel between them Addressing such questions in a systematic manner the contributors to this collection analyze the concepts and language used to describe contemporary social policy Combining detailed chapters on particular countries with broader comparative chapters the book offers a variety of perspectives on just what we mean when we use these terms Essai de recensement des employés et fonctionnaires de l'état Victor Turquan, 1899 Political Philosophy and the Challenge of Revealed Religion Heinrich Meier, 2017-01-27 Heinrich Meier's guiding insight in Political Philosophy and the Challenge of Revealed Religion is that philosophy must prove its right and its necessity in the face of the claim to truth and demand obedience of its most powerful opponent revealed religion Philosophy must rationally justify and politically defend its free and unreserved questioning and in doing so turns decisively to political philosophy In the first of three chapters Meier determines four intertwined moments constituting the concept of political philosophy as an articulated and internally dynamic whole The following two chapters develop the concept through the interpretation of two masterpieces of political philosophy that have occupied Meier's attention for more than thirty years Leo Strauss's Thoughts on Machiavelli and Jean Jacques Rousseau's Social Contract Meier provides a detailed investigation of Thoughts on Machiavelli with an appendix containing Strauss's original manuscript headings for each of his paragraphs Linking the problem of Socrates the origin of political philosophy with the problem of Machiavelli the beginning of modern political philosophy while placing between them the political and theological claims opposed to philosophy Strauss's most complex and controversial book proves to be as Meier shows the most astonishing treatise on the challenge of revealed religion The final chapter which offers a new interpretation of the Social Contract demonstrates that Rousseau's most famous work can be adequately understood only as a coherent political philosophic response to theocracy in all its forms Essais sur l'histoire de France François Guizot (Historien), 1872 Essais sur l'histoire de France François Guizot, 1872 The History of European Liberalism Guido De Ruggiero, 1927 Essai D'une Philosophie Première: L'action Edouard Le Roy, 1956 Essai historique sur le développement de la notion de droit naturel dans l'antiquité grecque E. Burle, 1908 Rethinking France Pierre Nora, 2001 How do we visualize a state or a nation Some might imagine territory the borders that divide countries that mark the space where power is exercised and history evolves

Others might picture natural aspects like mountains rivers and landscapes that make their own country distinct For Pierre Nora these are historical and geographical conceptions of space And in the case of the French these conceptions are not separate but instead uniquely linked They are key to understanding French national identity In Space the second volume in the University of Chicago Press's translation of Nora's ambitious Les Lieux de memoire a group of France's leading historians and cultural commentators call attention to the meaning of space for the French and the firm connection between the nation's history and its geography The essays gathered here cover the most essential approaches to French space external and internal boundaries the base unit of local space and the mental construction that gives a general idea of the concept of landscape The analyses focus on three aspects of natural boundaries the forest the north and the south and the coastline Each region of France they show is a space of memory that is the fruit of all the knowledge that gives it shape statistical cartographical geological and historical A crucial piece in Nora's profound historical project on the way the French understand themselves this volume will be appreciated by any critical thinker with an interest in French history politics culture or philosophy
