Early Childhood Policies and Systems in Eight Countries

Tony Bertram, Chris Pascal, 2016-07-29 This report provides an overview of policy strategies on early childhood education settings from birth to primary schooling in eight countries Data were collected using a policy questionnaire addressed to and completed by the National Research Coordinator s NRC of Chile the Czech Republic Denmark Estonia Italy Poland the Russian Federation and the United States The countries that participated provide interesting illustrations of early childhood education policy in action in a range of diverse contexts Analysis of the systemic and structural results of ECE policy at national and where necessary subnational levels enables transnational comparisons in policy and systems Key policy changes both underway and planned are documented These data reveal key findings in each of the five policy areas as covered in the questionnaire and this report public policy delivery models and providers participation and enrollment quality assurance systems and expectations for child outcomes In particular the study aims to provide meaningful information for countries states and jurisdictions across the world in relation to early childhood education mapping the systems structures and user pathways in place along with the perceptions of stakeholders about the system its functioning and impact This comprehensive assessment of the wider policy contexts and settings for early childhood education includes teacher practitioner qualifications pedagogy approaches and opportunities for professional development Such information will enable countries to review their early childhood education systems in an international context

The Meritocracy Trap

Daniel Markovits, 2020-09-08 A revolutionary new argument from eminent Yale Law professor Daniel Markovits attacking the false promise of meritocracy It is an axiom of American life that advantage should be earned through ability and effort Even as the country divides itself at every turn the meritocratic ideal that social and economic rewards should follow achievement rather than breeding reigns supreme Both Democrats and Republicans insistently repeat meritocratic notions Meritocracy cuts to the heart of who we are It sustains the American dream But what if both up and down the social ladder meritocracy is a sham Today meritocracy has become exactly what it was conceived to resist a mechanism for the concentration and dynastic transmission of wealth and privilege across generations Upward mobility has become a fantasy and the embattled middle classes are now more likely to sink into the working poor than to rise into the professional elite At the same time meritocracy now ensnares even those who manage to claw their way to the top requiring rich adults to work with crushing intensity exploiting their expensive educations in order to extract a return All this is not the result of deviations or retreats from meritocracy but rather stems directly from meritocracy's successes This is the radical argument that Daniel Markovits prosecutes with rare force Markovits is well placed to expose the sham of meritocracy Having spent his life at elite universities he knows from the inside the corrosive system we are trapped within Markovits also knows that if we understand that meritocratic inequality produces near universal harm we can cure it When The Meritocracy Trap reveals the inner workings of the meritocratic machine it also illuminates the first steps outward towards a new world that might once again afford dignity and prosperity to the American people
