Joan Miro Painting And Anti Painting 1927 1937:

Joan Miró Joan Miró, 2008 Taking Joan Miró's notorious declaration of 1927 'I want to assassinate painting as its point of departure' this richly illustrated volume is the first to focus on Miró the anti painter identifying the core practices and strategies the artist used to challenge painting between 1927 and 1937 Joan Miró Painting and Anti Painting 1927 1937 surveys the various material iconographical and rhetorical forms of Miró's attacks on painting by presenting in chronological sequence 12 distinct series of works beginning with a remarkable group of paintings on unprimed canvas and concluding with Miró's return to Realism in Still Life with Old Shoe 1937 Acidic color grotesque disfigurement stylistic heterogeneity and the use of resistant ready made materials are among the key tactics of aggression that are explored in this extraordinary presentation of the interrelated and oppositional series of paintings collages objects and drawings Miró produced during this crucial decade of his long career This volume integrates close scrutiny of Miró's materials and processes with historical and iconographic analysis leading to an expanded understanding of the underappreciated aggressiveness of an artist long regarded as Surrealism's most lyrical painter poet Joan Miró was born in 1893 in Barcelona After his first trip to Paris in 1920 and through 1931 Miró generally spent half of each year in the French capital and half in his native Catalonia returning to live in France after the outbreak of the Spanish Civil War in 1936 One of the twentieth century's greatest Modern artists Miró created a pictorial world of intense imaginative power in which visionary and cosmic elements are inextricably intertwined with the earthly and mundane He died in 1983 in Palma de Mallorca Spain Joan Miró Joan Miró, 2008 Joan Miro. Painting and Anti-painting 1927-1937 Anne Umland, 2008 Joan Miró Anne Umland, Jim Coddington, 2008 Historic Avant-Garde Work on Paper Sascha Bru, 2024-03-13 This book examines the many functions of paper in the fine art and aesthetics of the early twentieth century modernist or historic avant garde Expressionism Cubism Futurism Dadaism Surrealism Constructivism and many more With its many collages and photomontages the historic avant garde is generally considered to have transformed paper from a mere support into an artistic medium and to have assisted in art on paper gaining a firm autonomy Bringing together an international team of scholars this book shows that the story of paper in the avant garde has thereby hardly been told The first section looks at a selection of canonized individual avant gardists work on paper to demonstrate that the material and formal analysis of paper in the avant garde's artistic production still holds much in store In the second section chapters zoom in on forms and formats of collective artistic production that deployed paper to move around reproductions of fine art works to facilitate the dialogue between avant gardists to better promote their work among patrons and to make their work available to a wider audience Chapters in the third section lay bare how certain groups within the avant garde began to massively create monochrome works because these could be easily reproduced when transferred to or reproduced as linocuts In the last section of the book chapters explore how the avant garde's attentiveness to paper almost always also implied a critique of the ways in which paper and all that it stood for was treated and labored in

European culture and society more broadly The book will be of interest to scholars working in art history modernism and design The Turn to Provisionality in Contemporary Art Raphael Rubinstein,2023-01-12 In his influential essay Provisional Painting Raphael Rubinstein applied the term provisional to contemporary painters whose work looked intentionally casual dashed off tentative unfinished or self cancelling who appeared to have deliberately turned away from strong painting for something that seemed to constantly risk failure or inconsequence In this collection of essays Rubinstein expands the scope of his original article by surveying the historical and philosophical underpinnings of provisionality in recent visual art as well as examining the works of individual artists in detail He also engages crucial texts by Samuel Beckett and philosopher Gianni Vattimo Re examining several decades of painting practices Rubinstein argues that provisionality in all its many forms has been both a foundational element in the history of modern art and the encapsulation of an attitude that is profoundly contemporary

Surrealist Landscape in the American West Samantha Kavky,2025-12-16 Focusing on the period of the Second World War this book explores the emergence of surrealist landscape as a genre throughout the period of surrealist exile in the Americas By positioning surrealist landscape within the formal iconographic and theoretical strategies of the larger movement as well as within the historical context of war and exile the volume encompasses critical and historical discussions from a broad spectrum of interrelated fields including psychology anthropology military history art history and ecocriticism Central to this book are the landscapes of Max Ernst who along with transplanted European surrealists Wolfgang Paalen and Kurt Seligmann revitalized a Romantic image of the American landscape and its indigenous peoples divorced from and as a challenge to European nationalism American surrealists Dorothea Tanning and Kay Sage challenged traditional analogies between the earth and the female body retained by their male partners Other European surrealists such as Salvador Dal and Yves Tanguy perpetuated the appropriation of the desert as a generic space for visionary projection The book will be of interest to scholars working in art history surrealism ecocriticism American studies and feminist studies

Transfixed by Prehistory Maria Stavrinaki,2022-05-24 An examination of how modern art was impacted by the concept of prehistory and the prehistoric Prehistory is an invention of the late nineteenth century In that moment of technological progress and acceleration of production and circulation three major Western narratives about time took shape One after another these new fields of inquiry delved into the obscure immensity of the past first to surmise the age of the Earth second to find the point of emergence of human beings and third to ponder the age of art Maria Stavrinaki considers the inseparability of these accounts of temporality from the disruptive forces of modernity She asks what a history of modernity and its art would look like if considered through these three interwoven inventions of the longue dur e Transfixed by Prehistory attempts to articulate such a history which turns out to be more complex than an inevitable march of progress leading up to the Anthropocene Rather it is a history of stupor defamiliarization regressive acceleration and incessant invention since the new was also found in the deep sediments of the Earth Composed of as much speed as slowness as much
