Positioning Diversity in Kenyan Schools Malve von, 2022-06-01 Education is considered key for societies to achieve greater social cohesion and equality Yet schools as the main providers of formal education have increasingly come into question concerning their role in manifesting and perpetuating social categorisations inequalities and discrimination instead of decreasing existing fragmentations and challenging power relations and hierarchies As a diverse society Kenya is faced with power struggles and rivalries between different groups for instance along ethnic lines often constructed deep in colonial history This affects teaching and learning in school and the result is that Kenya is faced with vast disparities in terms of educational access and success rendering some social groups marginalised and others favoured Positioning Diversity at Kenyan Schools explores the ways in which teachers in Kenyan primary and secondary schools experience and deal with social categorisations and diversity in terms of ethnicity gender wealth culture religion etc in their professional practice and in the current education system Using critical pedagogy and diversity theory as a lens for positioning diversity in Kenyan schools the questions that this book sets out to answer are In what ways do the teachers and schools practices lead to transformation in terms of more social equality and less discrimination In what ways do the practices manifest existing group categorisations hierarchies and discrimination How can schools and teaching practices in postcolonial Kenya become more inclusive and foster social cohesion and equality Primary Schools in Kenya: Some Critical Constraints on Their Effectiveness Kenneth King, 1972 Urban Education David Coulby, Crispin Jones, Duncan Harris, 2005-12-08 First Published in 2005 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company Paper Qualification Syndrome (PQS) and Unemployment of School Leavers John Oxenham, 1982 Primary School Textbooks in Tanzania ,1987 Report Great Britain. Durrani: Two Paths Ahead Shiraz Durrani,2023-05-04 The struggle between socialism and capitalism in Kenya has been long bitter and violent Capitalism won with the active support of USA and UK governments at the time of independence in 1963 Yet the original 1960 Kenya African National Union KANU Party was in favour of socialism It was Presidents Jomo Kenyatta and Daniel Arap Moi who used violence to suppress those advocating socialism They used their power to massacre assassinate exile imprison and disappear people and created a state of terror to silence their opponents Capitalism became the unstated state policy Thus imperialism won and the aims of Mau Mau were brutally suppressed However the desire for socialism never died Resistance movements and opposition parties made socialism their aim reflecting peoples desire for justice equality and empowerment Many studies on Kenya focus on personalities or tribes or race as driver of events ignoring the all important class and ideological positions of leaders and their Parties Two Paths Ahead reproduces and comments on the documents from the opposing sides in the battles between capitalism and socialism the original Kenya African National Union KANU its successor KANU B and the Kenya Peoples Union KPU on economy land labour and social policy It also touches upon the demands of the organisers of the 1982 Coup and traces the political stand of key leaders as proponents of capitalism or socialism The final section reproduces some of the documents on this ideological struggle The book exposes the hidden hand of imperialism in the countrys rush to capitalism It fills a gap in understanding the real contradictions that divide Kenya to this day Teachers, Teacher Education, and Training Keith Watson,Celia Modgil,Sohan Modgil,1997 One of a series of four high level debates on major educational issues this book concerns the controversies about the role of the teacher and the place and content of teacher preparation
