

What is Life?

Life? What is life? What is the meaning of life? Why are life is important? What is the purpose of life? These questions might never find the right or appropriate answers because those questions are so subjective. And now I always think that questions when I actually hear about life. Everyone has a different way of viewing the definition of life. For me, life means to live in the moment and no worry to predict about our future. Life is like a book everyday a new page, every month is a new chapter and everyday is a series. Remember that life is actually like a book with an innumerable number of pages. These pages actually signify or represent the memories which we live in our life and also the ones which we will be living in the future. Each page is actually like a new chapter and a new start of every refreshing beginning in life. Life can also be considered to be mysterious enough because every new page represents a new challenge or a new problem in life. It is our duty to solve them by applying our rational thinking and experience that we have gathered in the past. Actually, all of our lives are simply as a storybook, and therefore we must make every possible effort to make it a bestseller. Remember that when things go wrong, it doesn't mean that fortune will never favor us anymore. Life is actually full of ups and downs, and we need to acknowledge it or accept it as it comes to us.

It means to strive to be your best at what you do and give it your best effort. It means to cherish every second you have with your family, friends, or relatives. It means to make an impact on a persons life. Life is an experience for us to try everything. For us to do what we like, along with what we don't like. When were take time to experience many things, what happens is that we become more aware of what is going on in the world, and in the minds of people. It provides an opportunity to relate and connect to more people in the world. Life has a meaning. It has its own purpose. It is to fulfill your purpose in life and to accomplish your goals. Sometimes life is unfair, but you always have to stand up for yourself to accomplish your goals. Pandemic reminded me that life is important because of the pandemic I learned how important life is. When my mom became positive in COVID disease I became even more worried about my life and the lives of the people I love.

I don't expect our country to have a big problem because of having this kind of disease. It is a huge for each of us because until now we don't have a vaccine to prevent it. Because of this pandemic we could not go back to our normal lives. I know many of us doesn't have hope in life because of this disease it will be reason why losing of their loved ones. And now I realized that the saying "Life is too short so live to the fullest" and probably I actually agree on it. That life is only short so let's do the things that will have good memories in our lives. Only God knows what good plan he had for us. Let us trust him no matter what happens to us because he will do everything okay to make our life back to normal. In order to enjoy life and live it to the fullest, it is essential to look at the very next page of our life and see what life has in stock for us. Turning the next page simply means that we must sound optimistic in troublesome situations and handle them with care and dedication. So life is too short so don't let other people do what you ever you want. Enjoy every moment in your life, let be free like a dove that they do what they want to go and fly so high.

The 1970 UNESCO and 1995 UNIDROIT Conventions on Stolen or Illegally Transferred Cultural Property, 2024-02-06 The illicit traffic in cultural objects is a grave concern to the general public and international community The resulting cultural damage fuels debates on how best to regulate the trade in cultural objects and inform legal responses at all levels for the protection of movable cultural heritage. Treaties concerning the treatment of cultural objects during peacetime and war represent some of the earliest multilateral initiatives on cultural heritage in the modern era. They also remain some of the most deeply contested, representing shifting fault lines within the international community. Authored by leading scholars and practitioners from around the world, this Commentary is the first to cover the two leading multilateral treaties on movable cultural heritage in one volume: the Convention on the Means of Prohibiting and Preventing the Illicit Import, Export and Transfer of Ownership of Cultural Property adopted by UNESCO in 1970 and the Convention on Stolen or Illegally Exported Cultural Objects adopted by UNIDROIT in 1995. This Commentary is designed to be the authoritative text for academics, lawyers, policymakers and diplomats on the protection and regulation of cultural objects. Encompassing both public and private international law rules on the trade in cultural objects, it provides a detailed historical and thematic overview. Drawing on the travaux préparatoires and intergovernmental and state practice over the last half century, the Commentary provides an article by article analysis of the interpretation and application of these treaties. The texts 1970 UNESCO and 1995 UNIDROIT Conventions are examined in the working context of other culture conventions including the World Heritage Convention and the Intangible Heritage Convention as well as related fields of international law such as international humanitarian law, international criminal law, human rights law and international economic law. The volume also offers a critical examination of current trends and future directions which are informing the field.

Mobile Museums Felix Driver, Mark Nesbitt, Caroline Cornish, 2021-04-19. Mobile Museums presents an argument for the importance of circulation in the study of museum collections past and present. It brings together an impressive array of international scholars and curators from a wide variety of disciplines including the history of science, museum anthropology and postcolonial history to consider the mobility of collections. The book combines historical perspectives on the circulation of museum objects in the past with contemporary accounts of their re-mobilisation notably in the context of Indigenous community engagement. Contributors seek to explore processes of circulation historically in order to re-examine, inform and unsettle common assumptions about the way museum collections have evolved over time and through space. By foregrounding questions of circulation, the chapters in Mobile Museums collectively represent a fundamental shift in the understanding of the history and future uses of museum collections. The book addresses a variety of different types of collection including the botanical, the ethnographic, the economic and the archaeological. Its perspective is truly global with case studies drawn from South America, West Africa, Oceania, Australia, the United States, Europe and the UK. Mobile Museums helps us to understand why the mobility of museum collections was a fundamental aspect of their history and why it continues to matter today. Praise for Mobile Museums: This book advances a paradigm shift in studies of museums and collections. A distinguished group of contributors reveal that collections are not dead assemblages. The nineteenth and twentieth centuries were marked by vigorous international traffic in ethnography and natural history specimens that tell us much about colonialism, travel and the history of knowledge and have implications for the remobilisation of museums in the future. Nicholas Thomas, University of Cambridge. The first major work to examine the implications and consequences of the migration of materials from one scientific or cultural milieu to another, it highlights the need for a more nuanced understanding of collections and offers insights into their potential for future re-mobilisation. Arthur MacGregor. Experiments in Worldly Ethnography Sevasti-Melissa Nolas, Rachael Stryker, Christos Varvantakis, 2024-04-09. This volume experiments with worldliness as found in theory, method and fieldwork practice. It provides readers with ten unique case studies that grapple with worldliness as an affective, relational, sensory and multimodal experience. Attending to globalisation's undulations and futures, the collection features research projects from around the world as well as writing in a reflective register about global topics including human trafficking, international adoption and migration, popular pedagogies, financial crises, datafication and AI, and terrorism and civil war. The book is an invitation to use ethnographic practice in a way that recognises the value of present conjunctures to interrupt and disrupt disciplinary ways of thinking. It is a provocation to collapse boundaries and scales between material and symbolic worlds to explore connections between the human and the non-human, to work with entanglements of matter and that matter and to feel or sense rather than know or explain one's way through ethnographic encounters. The volume will be of interest to upper level students and researchers in anthropology, sociology and cultural studies, especially those interested in global ethnography and the possibilities of qualitative research. The Cultivator & Country Gentleman, 1877. Paperbound Books in Print, 1991.
