Management for Productivity John R. Schermerhorn, 1993 Worker Skills and Job Requirements Michael Jeremy Handel, 2005 Reviews research on levels and trends in the skills workers possess the skills employers demand and the evidence for skill shortage Finds that the skills of American workers are not as weak nor are job requirements changing as rapidly as often claimed Highlights the need for reliable and representative data on workforce competencies and skill requirements

The Human Resource Challenge of International Joint Ventures Dianne J. Cyr, 1995-11-14 Human Resource Management HRM plays an important and strategic role in the success of international joint ventures Based on information collected from progressive successful international joint ventures involving companies such as Chrysler Ciba Geigy Corning Mitsubishi and Siemens the author delivers chapters rich in verbatim quotations from executives and other joint venture employees Each chapter concludes with a summary of key points that are a guide for attaining excellence in joint ventures The book will be of special interest to both managers and scholars who seek a fuller view of HRM in international joint ventures Evaluating effective joint ventures the author considers the subtle people dimensions involved in these operations A special feature of the book is the treatment of human resource management from the interorganizational viewpoint of parent corporations and the joint venture firm The author addresses such interesting issues as 1 how parent strategic goals influence HRM in the venture 2 the importance of HRM operational assignments within the JV management contract 3 the strengths and limitations of various HRM policies and practices 4 the role of culture and 5 organizational learning at strategic and operational levels in each venture Valuable knowledge into best practices for strategic HRM allows practitioners to enhance their joint venture success

The Opportunity Equation Eric Schwarz, 2015-08-25 Schwarz founder of the groundbreaking Citizen Schools program shares his vision for reducing inequality by pairing successful adults with low income students Parental wealth now predicts adult success more than at any point in the last hundred years And yet as debates about education rage on and wealth based achievement gaps grow too many people fix the blame on one of two convenient scapegoats poverty or our public schools But in fact low income kids are learning more now than ever before The real culprit for rising inequality Eric Schwarz argues in The Opportunity Equation is that wealthier kids are learning much much more mostly outside of school In summer camps robotics competitions sessions with private tutors and conversations around the dinner table children from more affluent families build the skills and social networks that propel them to success In The Opportunity Equation Schwarz tells the story of how he founded the pioneering Citizen Schools program to combat rising inequality by bringing these same opportunities to children who don t have access to them By increasing learning time in schools and harnessing the power of an army of volunteers with various skills and professional backgrounds lawyers engineers carpenters journalists nonprofit leaders and grandmothers who sew Citizen Schools offers after school apprenticeships that provide the building blocks for adult success Recounting the triumphs and setbacks he s encountered in implementing the program Schwarz shows that some of the nation s lowest performing schools in its lowest income cities can with help provide their students with many of the same experiences wealthy communities afford to their children The results have been proven in the dozen school districts from New York to Oakland that have partnered with Citizen Schools rates of attendance proficiency graduation and college acceptance have gone up and the achievement gap closes At a time when many stakeholders in the education debates are looking for new silver bullet shortcuts to educational excellence Schwarz shows that the best solution is human centered rooted in the American tradition of citizen voluntarism and most important achievable We can provide quality education for all students and close the opportunity gap in this country and we can do it together
