Theodor Storm 1817-88 poet and short story writer was born in Schleswig As early as 1843 he had made himself known as a lyrical poet of the Romantic School but he wrote nothing that excels in depth and tenderness of feeling the charming story of Immensee and taking his work all in all Storm still ranks today as a master of the short story in German literature rich though it is in this form of prose fiction C W Bell Peter Schlemihl one of the pleasantest fancies of the days when Germany delighted in romance was first published in 1814 The story is a poet's whim Later writings of Chamisso 1781-1838 proved him to be one of the best lyric poets of the romance school of his time entirely German in his tone of thought Henry Morley Brigitta is usually regarded as an early example of German realism and written by probably the most accomplished Austrian prose writer of the nineteenth century Adalbert Stifter 1805-68 an illustration of Stifter's didactic concern with inner beauty in contrast to outward appearances Stifter instructs us in more than inner beauty by demonstrating for us perhaps unwittingly that the preferred and positive values of the civilized world are always already informed by their antinomies Robert C Holub in Brigitta or the Lesson of Realism Frontier Terror Michael Rutter, 2023-04-01 Following the events of January 6 2021 talk of vigilantes and mob violence have become a part of our daily discourse reminding us that we haven't come as far as we thought from the wild days of the Old West The nineteenth century was a time of opportunity in the West but it was also fraught with lawlessness racism and extreme violence as territories became states freemen and immigrants settled alongside white homesteaders and the first unions changed the way we work Author Michael Rutter examines the growing pains of the American West through the lens of nineteenth and early twentieth century vigilantes outlaws mob violence and lynchings proving that oftentimes our country's democratic progress comes at the cost of physical violence
