Impact of Career Development Program Upon Local Coordinators Charles L. Mulford, Gerald E. Klonglan, David A. Hay, 1972 The general objective of the study was to investigate the effectiveness of the OCD Career Development Program The specific objectives were to determine the program s impact on the local civil defense coordinator s knowledge of and ability to build and operate a viable local civil defense organization and to link the official vertical civil defense systems to the local community horizontal social systems A portion of the data required to meaningfully evaluate a training program such as the Career Development Program was collected by a mail questionnaire which determined the perceptions of 128 local civil defense graduates of Career Development regarding changes in their knowledge behavior attitudes and degree of participation in civil defense related activities resulting from their attendance at the Career Development Program The four impact areas knowledge behavior attitudes and degree of participation were utilized as the major criteria in assessing the degree to which Staff College is achieving the objectives established for the Career Development Program Author Journal of the Canadian Dental Association Canadian Dental Association, 1997 Chetco River, Oregon United States.
