Department of Homeland Security Appropriations for 2017 United States. Congress. House. Committee on Appropriations. Subcommittee on Homeland Security, 2016      "Code of Massachusetts regulations, 2015", 2015
Archival snapshot of entire looseleaf Code of Massachusetts Regulations held by the Social Law Library of Massachusetts as of January 2020      Institutional Translation and Interpreting Fernando Prieto Ramos, 2020-11-17 This collection brings together new insights around current translation and interpreting practices in national and supranational settings The book illustrates the importance of further reflection on issues around quality and assessment given the increased development of resources for translators and interpreters The first part of the volume focuses on these issues as embodied in case studies from a range of national and regional contexts including Finland Switzerland Italy Spain and the United States The second part takes a broader perspective to look at best practices and questions of quality through the lens of international bodies and organizations and the shifting roles of translation and interpreting practitioners in working to manage these issues Taken together this collection demonstrates the relevance of critically examining processes competences and products in current institutional translation and interpreting settings at the national and supranational levels paving the way for further research and quality assurance strategies in the field The Introduction Chapter 7 and Conclusion of this book are freely available as downloadable Open Access PDFs at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4.0 license      The International Law on Foreign Investment M. Sornarajah, 2021-07-01 The climate surrounding foreign investment law is one of controversy and change and with implications for human rights and environmental protection foreign investment law has gained widespread public attention and visibility This fully updated edition of Sornarajah's classic text offers thought provoking analysis of the law in historical political and economic contexts capturing leading trends and charting the possible course of future developments It takes into account the newer types of treaties that establish a regulatory space for states and moves away from inflexible investment protection exploring the newly created defences relating to environment human rights indigenous rights and other areas ending the fragmentation of the law It looks at the current debates on legitimacy of the system and current efforts at reform Suitable for postgraduate and undergraduate students The International Law on Foreign Investment is essential reading for anyone specialising in the law of foreign investments      Handbook on the Governance and Politics of Migration Emma Carmel, Katharina Lenner, Regine Paul, 2021-04-30 This innovative Handbook sets out a conceptual and analytical framework for the critical appraisal of migration governance Global and interdisciplinary in scope the chapters are organised across six key themes conceptual debates categorisations of migration governance regimes processes spaces of migration governance and mobilisations around it      Fitness to Plead Ronnie Mackay, Warren Brookbanks, 2018-06-14 The law relating to fitness to plead is an increasingly important area of the criminal law While criminalization may be justified whenever an offender commits a sufficiently serious moral wrong requiring that he or she be called to account the doctrine of fitness to plead calls this principle into question in the case of a person who lacks the capacity or ability to participate meaningfully in a criminal trial In light of the emerging focus on capacity based approaches to decision making and the international human rights requirement that the law should treat defendants fairly this volume offers a benchmark for the theory and practice of fitness to plead providing readers with a unique opportunity to consider differing perspectives and debate on the future development and direction of a doctrine which has up till now been under discussed and under researched The fitness to plead rules stand as an exception to notions of public accountability for criminal wrongdoing yet despite the doctrine s long standing function in criminal procedure it has proven complex to apply in practice and has given rise to many varied legislative models and considerable litigation in different jurisdictions Particularly troublesome is the question of what is to be done with someone who has been found unfit to stand trial Here the law is required to balance the need to protect those defendants who are unable to participate effectively in their own trial whether permanently or for a defined period and the need to protect the public from people who may have caused serious social harm as a result of their antisocial behaviour The challenge for law reformers legislators and judges is to create rules that ensure that everyone who can properly be tried is tried while seeking to preserve confidence in the fairness of the legal system by ensuring that people who cannot properly engage in the criminal trial process are not forced to endure it
