

Young love with a twist

Twenty-five twenty-somethings embrace the gap

On Sunday 4 May, you may have heard various stories coming from the Maccabi Duffryn Home. The reason? Twenty-five lucky residents enjoyed a break at the Aotea by the lake for this evening — a twenty-something bachelor or bachelorette. Dressed up in their finest and armed with a stunning red rose.

Together with their glamorous young dates, they walked the red carpet, to the "Great Gender" themed ball, organised by the young adults themselves.

Both young and old enjoyed an evening of fun, wine and great food courtesy of the MDR, and danced under the disco ball as old favourites were mixed up with more modern day items.

What inspired this special evening? Well, beginning the lives of the adult members of our community goes on a date (yes, date, not date-night!) and the feeling of doing something genuine goes Maccabean.

Big thanks to the wonderful Sarah Moyal, Shira Horvitz and Janet Comrie for organising such an elegant and inspiring evening! Our community is genuinely proud of you and proud to be made up of people like you!

Israel offers to help Nigeria find abducted girls

Natanyahu to Nigerian president:
"We are ready to help in finding the girls and fighting the cruel terrorism inflicted on you."

Israel has offered assistance to Nigeria in locating 275 high school girls just freed after being abducted last month by the Boko Haram terrorist network.

The offer came as Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu spoke from Japan last Sunday to Nigerian President Goodluck Jonathan.

"Israel expresses its deep shock at the crime committed against the girls," he said.

"We are willing to help assist in locating the girls and fighting the terror that is afflicting you."

For people Jonathan has refused international assistance to help locate and free the girls, and only recently agreed to accept help from the United States, France, Britain and China.

Nigeria is one of Israel's closest friends in Africa, and Israel provided Nigerian authorities with medical supplies following a Boko Haram attack against their churches on Christmas Day in 2011 that killed 120.

Last September, Israel was among several countries that sent soldiers to Kenya to assist in a raid off north Indian Ocean against a militant vessel in Nairobi.
