Muslim Citizens in the West Samina Yasmeen, Nina Markovic, 2016-04-29 Drawing upon original case studies spanning North America Europe and Australia Muslim Citizens in the West explores how Muslims have been both the excluded and the excluders within the wider societies in which they live The book extends debates on the inclusion and exclusion of Muslim minorities beyond ideas of marginalisation to show that while there have undoubtedly been increased incidences of Islamophobia since September 2001 some Muslim groups have played their own part in separating themselves from the wider society The cases examined show how these tendencies span geographical ethnic and gender divides and can be encouraged by a combination of international and national developments prompting some groups to identify wider society as the other Muslim and non Muslim scholars and practitioners in political science social work history and law also highlight positive outcomes in terms of Muslim activism with relationship to their respective countries and suggest ways in which increasing tensions felt perceived or assumed can be eased and greater emphasis given to the role Muslims can play in shaping their place in the wider communities where they live

Ce petit livre aborde les grandes problématiques portant sur les musulmans canadiens. Qui sont les musulmans canadiens ? Que faut-il pour qu'un pays soit une terre d'accueil saine et accueillante ? Ces questions sont abordées dans la première section. Qu'est-ce que l'identité musulmane canadienne ? Cette section offre des pistes de réponses aux difficiles questions entourant l'interaction entre les identités religieuse et nationale. Sont-elles contradictoires ou complémentaires ? Comment se compare le modèle canadien d'intégration ? Deux modèles très différents sont présentés : titre de comparaisons le modèle d'assimilation française et l'approche bosnienne d'exclusion. Qu'est-ce que la citoyenneté d'un point de vue islamique ? La dernière section explore les principes formateurs de l'Islam : le Coran et la sunna, tradition prophétique, l'ère de la mondialisation. L'histoire de l'Islam y compris son histoire contemporaine jettent un éclairage intéressant sur la question. Fondé sur la compréhension accrue et le respect, ce petit livre contribue de manière positive au débat actuel sur la place des musulmans canadiens et de l'Islam au Canada. Voici le titre inaugural de la Collection 101 : une série de brèves introductions en 101 pages aux grands débats de société.

Ce livre est publié en anglais. Muslims in Western Politics Abdulkader H. Sinno, 2009. Islam as a social and political force in Western liberal democracies. The Political Psychology of Globalization Catarina Kinnvall, Paul Nesbitt-Larking, 2011-08-01. In an increasingly globalized world there are new economic, strategic, cultural and political forces at work. The Political Psychology of Globalization: Muslims in the West explores how these shifts and shocks have influenced the way in which Muslim minorities in western countries form their identities as political actors. Catarina Kinnvall and Paul Nesbitt Larking uncover three identity strategies adopted by Muslims in the West: retreatism, essentialism and engagement. Six western countries: Canada, Denmark, France, the Netherlands, Sweden and the United Kingdom serve as places for exploration of the emergence of these Muslim political identities. These countries are discussed in light of their colonial histories, patterns of immigration and citizenship regimes. Although retreatism, essentialism and engagement occur in Muslim citizens of each of the six western nations discussed in this book, the countries that are best able to balance individual and community rights are most successful in promoting the politics of engagement. In contrast, regimes that focus on anti-terrorist legislation and discourses and support majority political cultures that are exclusionary also promote retreatism and essentialist identity strategies in both minority and majority communities. The authors discuss the importance of a climate of engagement that is based on recognition, dialogue, deep multiculturalism, a new global and cosmopolitical consciousness and a sense of political identity that transcends national boundaries and regimes. Citizen Islam Zeyno Baran, 2011-07-21. Since September 11 Western governments have legitimized and empowered nonviolent Islamists as representatives of Islam for all Muslims in the West, an approach that has worried Muslim moderates. Citizen Islam addresses the implications of this approach. The book opens with an overview of the theology and history of Islam to show that violence and intolerance are not fundamental aspects of the religion. It then explains the growth of Islamism in Europe and in the United States before suggesting that both are finally beginning to recognize the threat posed by nonviolent Islamists. Lastly, it outlines steps that Western and Muslims leaders can take to strengthen moderate Islam and counter the threat of Islamism Written by Zeyno Baran a Turkish born Muslim Citizen Islam sheds a sharp light on Muslim communities in the West It concludes that there is much that Western governments can still do to reverse the spread of Islamism But they must act quickly The Right to Nationality Status

Sinno,2009 Looking closely at relations between Muslims and their host countries Abdulkader H Sinno and an international group of scholars examine questions of political representation identity politics civil liberties immigration and security issues While many have problematized Muslims in the West this volume takes a unique stance by viewing Muslims as a normative and even positive influence in Western politics Squarely political and transatlantic in scope the essays in this collected work focus on Islam and Muslim citizens in Europe and the Americas since 9 11 the European bombings and the recent riots in France Main topics include Muslim political participation and activism perceptions about Islam and politics Western attitudes about Muslim visibility in the political arena radicalization of Muslims in an age of apparent shrinking of civil liberties and personal security in politically uneasy times WOMEN EDUCATION IN MODERN PERSPECTIVE Dr. Savita Mishra,Ms. Reshma Khatun,2017-07-26 There has been a long history of addressing women s rights and much progress has been made in securing it across the world in recent decades However important gaps remain and women s realities are constantly changing with new manifestations of discrimination against them which emerges regularly Some groups of women face additional forms of discrimination based on their age ethnicity nationality religion health status marital status education disability and socio economic status among other grounds The Muslim
