Muslims Under Latin Rule, 1100-1300 James M. Powell, 2014-07-14 Covering Portugal and Castile in the West to the Latin Kingdom of Jerusalem in the East this collection focuses on Muslim minorities living in Christian lands during the high Middle Ages and examines to what extent notions of religious tolerance influenced Muslim Christian relations The authors call into question the applicability of modern ideas of toleration to medieval social relations investigating the situation instead from the standpoint of human experience within the two religious cultures Whereas this study offers no evidence of an evolution of coherent policy concerning treatment of minorities in these Christian domains it does reveal how religious ideas and communitarian traditions worked together to blunt the harsh realities of the relations between victors and vanquished The chapters in this volume include The Mudejars of Castile and Portugal in the Twelfth and Thirteenth Centuries by Joseph F O Callaghan Muslims in the Thirteenth Century Realms of Aragon Interactions and Reaction by Robert I Burns S J The End of Muslim Sicily by David S H Abulafia The Subjected Muslims of the Frankish Levant by Benjamin Z Kedar and The Papacy and the Muslim Frontier by James M Powell Originally published in 1990 The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905

The Crusader States and their Neighbours Nicholas Morton, 2020-04-24 The Crusader States and their Neighbours Winner The Verbruggen Prize The Society for Medieval Military History explores the military history of the Medieval Near East piecing together the fault lines of conflict which entangled this much contested region This was an area where ethnic religious dynastic and commercial interests collided and the causes of war could be numerous Conflicts persisted for decades and were fought out between many groups including Kurds Turks Armenians Arabs and the crusaders themselves Nicholas Morton recreates this world exploring how each faction sought to advance its own interests by any means possible adapting its warcraft to better respond to the threats posed by their rivals Strategies and tactics employed by the pastoral societies of the Central Asian Steppe were pitted against the armies of the agricultural societies of Western Christendom Byzantium and the Islamic World galvanising commanders to adapt their practices in response to their foes Today we are generally encouraged to think of this era as a time of religious conflict and yet this vastly over simplifies a complex region where violence could take place for many reasons and peoples of different faiths could easily find themselves fighting side by side
