Bossy Terms Sylvia Hart,2024-01-02 Quid pro quo doesn't even begin to cover the arrangement I have with my billionaire boss Three years ago I had a wild night with a man I only knew as Andrew at the company Christmas party An impromptu escape complete with stripper Santa and saucy elf costumes ended with us squarely on the naughty list It was perfect until I found out he was the owner's son and was leaving for London in the morning Now he's back in town and this time there won't be any tangled sheets or costumes He tricks me onto his private jet so he can make me an offer I can't refuse while he's stealing me away to London Six months of learning to run his business and in return I can have anything I want The only problem We're never apart I'm living in his penthouse Late nights at the office Lunch dates to secret restaurants Every minute together reminds us of that scorching night we shared How long can we go before fantasies turn into realities A little afternoon delight between emails is just fun and games but anything more will ruin our arrangement We have to stay strictly professional or at least only physical He may have stolen me away but he'll never steal my heart Bossy Terms is a standalone one night stand turned billionaire boss romance featuring a woman trying to find her own way a damaged man trying to become more than the little brother a strange fascination with Christmas elves and oh so much steam
