Moonlight in a Desert R. Sethumadhavi,2020-11-25 This is the autobiography of a woman who had great ambitions and stepped into the wide world with lots of dreams ignoring her personal life But she had to stop short of achieving her ambitions for no fault of hers Her life became moonlight in a desert Who is to be blamed for this The system or destiny if you believe in destiny The autobiography is in four parts Part 1 describes her educational background how she reached the capital of the country from a small town where she completed her school and college education Part 2 describes her life as a college lecturer starting with teaching undergraduates and then teaching postgraduates Part 3 describes her leaving the teaching job in spite of her tremendous love for it due to circumstances beyond her control She started a 20 year banking career and her various experiences there both good and bad make for an interesting reading The book is written in a simple language and lucid style As one reads one can go through the emotions of her various experiences This book may open the eyes of some heads of institutions whose responsibilities and decisions affect the lives of so many people without them knowing making them the moonlight in a desert Those who affect and those who get affected will both profit from reading this book Education World ,2006 Economic and Political Weekly ,2006 Building Up a New University P. R.

Dubhashi,2000 With reference to Goa University Data India ,2006-07 Business India ,2009-04 Catalogue of Books Printed in the Bombay Province ,1942 The Progress of Education ,1998 IETE Journal of Research ,2001

Festival ,2000 Four Decades of Distance Education in India Suresh Garg,2006 The evolution of distance education in India in forms of dual mode single mode and consortia has been phenomenal The system today is one of the largest distance education networks in the world comprising dual mode university distance education institutes single mode open universities dual mode secondary education single mode open schools distance education council consortium and many private and semi government providers of education and training The four generations of distance education have been implemented in a variety of forms and models and the system exhibits adoption of innovative practices in course design development delivery evaluation media networking and planning and management which have proved effective in addressing the issues of access and equity economy quality and reform in the country and which have been adapted emulated by a host of such systems in the developing world It is therefore imperative at this stage to reflect on the developments of above four decades of distance education in this country and map its future expansion Each chapter in the volume reflects on the concerned theme covering the distance education system in the country traces the limitations and adoption of innovative strategies to address the issues and introspect on its future possibilities
