Museums History And Culture In Malaysia:

Museums, History and Culture in Malaysia Abu Talib Ahmad, 2014-10-10 During the half century following Malaysian independence in 1957 the country's National Museum underwent a transformation that involved a shift from serving as a repository for displays of mounted butterflies and stuffed animals and accounts of the colonial experience to an overarching national narrative focused on culture and history. These topics are sensitive and highly disputed in Malaysia and many of the country's museums contest the narrative that underlies displays in the National Museum offering alternative treatments of subjects such as Malaysia's pre-Islamic past, the history and heritage of the Melaka sultanate, memories of the Japanese Occupation, national cultural policy and cultural differences between the Federation's constituent states. In Museums History and Culture in Malaysia Abu Talib Ahmad examines museum displays throughout the country and uses textual analysis of museum publications along with interviews with serving and retired museum officers to evaluate changing approaches to exhibits and the tensions that they express or sometimes create. In addition to the National Museum he considers museums and memorials in Penang, Kedah, Perak, Selangor, Kuala Lumpur, Sabah, Kelantan and Terengganu as well as memorials dedicated to national heroes such as former Prime Ministers Tunku Abdul Rahman and Tun Abdul Razak Hussein and film and recording artist P. Ramlee. The book offers rich and fascinating insights into differing versions of the country's character and historical experience and efforts to reconcile these sometimes disparate accounts. Museums, History, and Culture in Malaysia Abu Talib Ahmad, 2014

National Museum, Kuala Lumpur Mark Harris, 1990 Museums of Southeast Asia Iola Lenzi, 2004 Lavishly illustrated Museums of Southeast Asia is a guidebook to the collections, history and architecture of the region's museums. It is an up-to-date comprehensive and useful reference guide for visitors planning their trips to Southeast Asia and for armchair travelers seeking to broaden their knowledge of the region. Directory of Museums in Malaysia, 2002*

Museums of the World Marco Schulze, 2007-05-15 Museums of the World covers in its 13th edition 52,953 museums in 201 countries listed hierarchically by country and place and within places alphabetically by name. A separate chapter records 504 museum organizations in 131 countries with addresses. The museums are coded by 22 categories identifying the focus and type of each institution. A typical entry contains the following details: name of the museum in the original language with English translation where necessary, address, telephone number, fax, eMail address and URL, museum type, year of foundation, name of the director and museum staff, special collections and equipment, number of the entry. In addition, there is an alphabetical index of museums, a subject index, an index of persons covering academic staff working in museums and a personality index recording artists whose works are shown predominantly in a specific museum and/or referring to memorabilia of famous individuals.
