Digital Transformation of Animal Health Data: Proceedings of the AHEAD 2017 Workshop Flavie Vial, András Székács, Sinead Quealy, 2018-08-30 The Organisation for Economic Co operation and Development OECD s Co operative Research Programme on Biological Resource Management for Sustainable Agricultural Systems sponsored the AHEAD 2017 workshop bringing together experts from the farming and pharmaceutical industries information and communications technology policy research and more to create a roadmap to the digital transformation of animal health surveillance In many countries policy supports the reduction of antibiotic use and a growing focus in the veterinary practice is to move away from blanket dosage of antibiotics for example for mastitis Significant and speedy improvements can take place but only with coordinated actions supported by the entire value chain Reducing the use of antibiotics is of massive societal importance but changing on farm or veterinary methods requires thought and a user centred approach The most glaring and addressable challenge is the absence of near real time data and information AHEAD 2017 explored how governments globally can benefit from increased digitisation in animal health For effective monitoring it is important to first understand the relevant tasks of each stakeholder in the food value chain In these proceedings we openly discuss and define these tasks identify existing challenges to completion of these tasks and suggest the business opportunities overcoming these challenges can create Through this publication it is our intention to encourage open discussion design and co creation of an improved digital approach to animal health and drug usage in agriculture The Workshop was sponsored by the OECD Co operative Research Programme on Biological Resource Management for Sustainable Agricultural Systems whose financial support made it possible for most of the invited speakers to participate in the Workshop The opinions expressed and arguments employed in this publication are the sole responsibility of the authors and do not necessarily reflect those of the OECD or of the governments of its Member countries

Handbook of Innovative Career Counselling Jacobus G. Maree, 2019-07-20 This book examines a topic widely regarded as the most pressing in career counselling today i e how to ensure that everyone receives career counselling and that all workers have the opportunity to engage in sustainable decent work The author holds that career counselling should not only advance workers self and career construction helping them design successful career lives and make social contributions and live purposeful lives it should also expound new theoretical approaches and interventions Furthermore the book criticizes global society for overlooking the basic needs of many workers especially the most vulnerable and disadvantaged An important feature of the book is its emphasis on promoting a creative and innovative approach to career counselling so as to better answer contemporary career related questions It offers guidance on how to advance entrepreneurship and help workers develop critical thinking curiosity creativity collaboration and communication skills In this way the book promotes innovation in career counselling and maps the way forward in a theoretical and practical manner that helps clients flourish rather than merely survive in turbulent times impacted by the fourth wave in psychology career counselling the economy as well as the 4th industrial revolution
