Risk, Resilience, and Recovery Across Global Education Systems Louis Volante, Kristof De Witte, Orazio Giancola, Luca Salmieri, Don A. Klinger, 2026-01-22 This book provides a critical review of the long term effectiveness of education and social protection policies enacted by G10 countries in response to the global pandemic The COVID 19 pandemic caused the most significant disruption to education systems since the devastation of World War II Successive waves and variants of the coronavirus resulted in school closures and spurred a range of policy interventions across national education systems to combat both the cognitive i e achievement in reading mathematics and science and non cognitive socioemotional development mental and physical health impacts on student achievement and wellbeing This book aims to evaluate the long term efficacy of such interventions drawing on an analysis of a cross section of nine industrialized countries the United Kingdom France Germany Italy Sweden Netherlands Belgium Canada and Japan It further offers cross national insights for policymakers and discusses the critical importance of broader notions of academic resilience in a post pandemic world Ultimately this volume aims to identify national policies that have helped to buffer students from the long term challenges associated with the aftermath of the pandemic A timely and important text it will be of interest to researchers and policymakers in education policy pandemic response impact evaluation and student mental health The New Education Cathy N. Davidson, 2017-09-05 A leading educational thinker argues that the American university is stuck in the past and shows how we can revolutionize it for our era of constant change Our current system of higher education dates to the period from 1865 to 1925 It was in those decades that the nation's new universities created grades and departments majors and minors all in an attempt to prepare young people for a world transformed by the telegraph and the Model T As Cathy N Davidson argues in The New Education this approach to education is wholly unsuited to the era of the gig economy From the Ivy League to community colleges she introduces us to innovators who are remaking college for our own time by emphasizing student centered learning that values creativity in the face of change above all The New Education ultimately shows how we can teach students not only to survive but to thrive amid the challenges to come Kids Count New Jersey ..., 2016

Learning in times of COVID-19: Students', Families', and Educators' Perspectives Sina Fackler, Timo Gnambs, Karin Gehrler, Kathrin Lockl, Ariel Mariah Lindorff, Karin Sørli Street, 2022-06-03 Normal Instructor and Teachers World, 1924

Who Gets In? Rebecca Zwick, 2017-05-15 On the disputed topic of U S college admissions everyone agrees that this high stakes competition is unfair But few agree on what a fair process would be Stressing transparency in evaluating applicants Rebecca Zwick assesses the goals and criteria of different admissions policies and shows how they can fail to produce the desired results Handbook of Automated Scoring Duanli Yan, André A. Rupp, Peter W. Foltz, 2020-02-26 Automated scoring engines require a careful balancing of the contributions of technology NLP psychometrics artificial intelligence and the learning sciences The present handbook is evidence that the theories methodologies and underlying technology that surround automated scoring have reached maturity and that there is a growing acceptance of these technologies among experts and the public From the Foreword by Alina von Davier ACTNext Senior Vice President Handbook of Automated Scoring Theory into Practice provides a scientifically grounded overview of the key research efforts required to move automated scoring systems into operational practice It examines the field of automated scoring from the viewpoint of related scientific fields serving as its foundation the latest developments of computational methodologies utilized in automated scoring and several large scale real world applications of automated scoring for complex learning and assessment systems The book is organized into three parts that cover 1 theoretical foundations 2 operational methodologies and 3 practical illustrations each with a commentary In addition the handbook includes an introduction and synthesis chapter as well as a cross chapter glossary

Eight Propositions Joe L. Rempson, 2020-11-19 Rempson takes issue with those who lay the plight of African Americans on racism not seeing it today as a major obstacle to black progress Rather he traces the origin back to what he terms the African American Garden of Eden In it W E B Dubois outlasted Booker T Washington and fathered a tradition which Rempson argues has produced a victim identity and an emphasis on the system rather than the self Only black males offer a way out he declares because it is entirely our black males who are keeping us down and curtailing our progress in contrast to black females who are doing OK They are plagued by what Rempson calls the African American Male School Adaptability Crisis AMSAC Their academic performance ranks at the bottom alone below black female students and below white Asian and Hispanic male students In large urban areas their high school dropout rate is 59 percent and nationally they lag behind in college attendance and graduation rates The outcome Rempson argues is dysfunctionality and the existence of hedonistic norms which hinder family and community stability But while black males are the problem Rempson contends it is nevertheless only they who can solve it because research and experience show that it takes males to bring up and change other males Though intended for everyone he therefore writes his book to his fellow advantaged black males and makes a passionate plea for them to step up and with the help of black females and of the nation take the lead As their guide he has formulated eight propositions Arrived at through an examination of impressively extensive data from numerous sources and disciplines they are a marked departure from the customary Most strikingly delicate matters such as those which pertain to intelligence quotient IQ and culture are openly confronted and dealt with But Rempson writes unless confronted we will not solve our problems Nor he continues can we solve them unless we cut the umbilical cord to white America We have no right to expect it to be our savior nor are we justified in perceiving it as our oppressor Forcefully and finely written Rempson's book is a singular and courageous contribution Alone his eight propositions make it a worthy read
