Fontaine, Gad Freudenthal, 2013-08-01 This two volume work Latin into Hebrew Texts and Studies sheds new light on an under investigated phenomenon of European medieval intellectual history the transmission of knowledge and texts from Latin into Hebrew between the twelfth and the fifteenth century Because medieval Jewish philosophy and science in Christian Europe drew mostly on Hebrew translations from Arabic the significance of the input from the Christian majority culture has been neglected Latin into Hebrew Texts and Studies redresses the balance It highlights the various phases of Latin into Hebrew translations and considers their disparity in time place and motivations Special emphasis is put on the singular role of the translations of Latin medical and philosophical literature Volume One Studies offers 18 studies and Volume Two Texts in Contexts includes editions and analyses of hitherto unpublished texts of medieval Latin into Hebrew translations Both volumes are available separately or together as a set This groundbreaking work is indispensable for any scholar interested in the history of medieval philosophic and scientific thought in Hebrew Latin and Arabic in relationship to significance of such usages as part of the political vocabulary of medieval Russia and to reveal the ideology behind them The period covered extends from Kievan times when the titlature reflects the close relationship and rivalry with the Byzantine empire but the main focus is on the later period when the different princes competed for the heritage of the Kievan state and the notion of Russia itself became part of the political conflict This struggle was won by the rulers of Moscow though only in the face of determined opposition from the neighbouring principality of Tver and its history effectively suppressed or neglected in succeeding centuries is a major theme in this volume      Jurisprudence du XIXe siècle, ou Recueil des
