David M. Currie

Let Us Worship:

Let Us Worship God Derek W. H. Thomas, 2021-11-02 Worship isn't just something we do; it's the purpose of our existence. Every week Christians come together to share a taste of heaven itself where all of God's redeemed people will exalt His holy name forever. But what's really going on when we worship? And what's worship supposed to look like in the life of the church? In Let Us Worship God Dr. Derek Thomas addresses the how and why of Christian worship. May we worship God however we want. Do we need the church or can we worship alone? What are the necessary elements of a worship service? These and other questions find their answers in these pages leading us to a greater understanding of worship as life's highest privilege and richest joy. Let Us Worship Judson Cornwall, 2013-10-30 Let Us Worship provides us with a comprehensive overview of the importance of worship. It is a believer's manual that leads the reader into the very presence of God. In this book Dr. Cornwall shows the reader that worship is: The beginning of revival, An interpersonal relationship between man and God, A present moment activity, Love responding to love, An expression of faith, The total release of our spirit to God's Spirit.

Come, Let Us Worship H. Burnham Kirkland, 2000 Arranged according to the seasons of the church year, this volume presents several worship aids for every Sunday: a call to worship, an invocation, a ritual of friendship, an offertory sentence and prayer, a benediction, and a pastoral prayer. Each is designed to make the Sunday morning worship experience meaningful and uplifting. Having just read Come Let Us Worship, I can highly recommend it to pastors. How I wish I had had it available to me in my early ministry. It is rich in quality and variety. James K. Matthews, United Methodist bishop, Washington, DC. Dr. Kirkland, with skill and artistic imagination, offers fresh and exciting wording that captures the highest form for praise, spiritual preparation and petition, and reflects the mood of sincere reverence that ought to characterize corporate worship at its best. Earl G. Hunt Jr., United Methodist bishop, Lake Junaluska, North Carolina. During more than fifty years in the ministry, H. Burnham Kirkland served as the pastor of eight local congregations and as a missionary in the Philippines, as well as being district superintendent, twice conference program director, and treasurer of World Missions of the United Methodist Church. A graduate of the College of the City of New York and Union Theological Seminary in New York City, Dr. Kirkland also holds honorary doctorates from Philippine Wesleyan University and DePauw University, Greencastle, Indiana. Come, Let Us Worship R.L. Evans, The Christian's worship, praise and adoration of God transcends the gathering together in churches. It extends into everyday life. The call to worship, praise and adoration is not only for religious ceremonies and for assemblies but it also has to characterize the believer's lifestyle and existence. In the first book of this series we will discuss the various dimensions of worship. Through the examination of biblical and religious terminology, a proper appreciation of the believer's Call to Worship is established. Let Us Praise/Let Us Worship Judson Cornwall, 2006-07 Two Judson Cornwall timeless books combined into one. Let Us Praise: Have you desired to praise God more freely but don't know how? This book is for you. Judson Cornwall weaves lessons through 350 Scriptures that pertain to praise, assuring that praise is patterned by God and therefore divine Let Us Worship An exposition of Bible passages dealing with worship that inspire direct and channel the reader into worship The reader will learn the secrets of an intimate relationship with God knowledge with depth that few ever experience O Come, Let Us Worship Robert G. Rayburn, 2010-05-01 Michael A Rogers It is refreshing to see biblical theology so thoroughly integrated with practical directives for developing the worship service Eternity Clifford E Bajema Out of Rayburn's rich experience as a teacher and as a preacher who has served five pastorates he gives us a book which should further liturgical interest and discussion on Reformed circles All in all Rayburn's book is very much worth reading Calvin Theological Journal William F Hunter Will hopefully stimulate evangelicals to explore a relatively unknown aspect to the corporate life of believers Journal of Psychology and Theology Donald Macleod A very ambitious survey it is a very comprehensive treatment of the worship responsibilities of the everyday parish ministry Princeton Seminary Bulletin Garry Harris A critical self analysis of the short comings in the evangelical liturgical experience It should serve as a guide to more meaningful corporate worship Seminary Review R O Zorn A useful volume which will make ministers and their congregations more conscious of the nature and significance of public worship Vox Reformata Laurence H Stookey Those evangelicals who conduct worship services which are casual and uncoordinated and who shun the riches of catholic prayer and hymnody are presented with a thoughtful challenge by a writer with impeccable evangelical credentials Homiletics Robert G Rayburn d 1990 was the founding president of Covenant Theological Seminary where he also served as Professor of Practical Theology He also served five pastorates including the College Church in Wheaton Illinois As a chaplain in the United States Army he served in both the Second World War and the Korean War Rev. J. M. Neale Collection [2 Books] Rev. J. M. Neale, Aeterna Press, A Commentary On the Psalms from Primitive and Mediaeval Writers: Volumes 1 to 4 Rev. J. M. Neale D.D., Aeterna Press, The mystical interpretation of Holy Scripture has fallen so completely into abeyance with us that it is no unusual thing to hear authors like Bishop Horne who barely entered on it called fanciful and crotchety in virtue of those partial attempts I know that very much in the following pages will appear beyond measure wild and unreal to persons who are not used to primitive and medi val commentators To those who are I would merely state that not one single mystical interpretation through the present Commentary is original and if I may venture on the term that fact constitutes its chief value Come, Let Us Worship God David M. Currie, 1977-01-01 This useful collection of prayers has grown out of David Currie's own weekly worship services His style is modern but not trivial or lacking in dignity The calls to worship and confession especially speak in contemporary language and use experiences of everyday life for illustration Included are calls to worship and opening prayers calls to confession and prayers of confession and prayers for special days and occasions Pastors and lay leaders of worship will welcome this fresh new source of practical assistance The Living Age, 1850 LET US WORSHIP JESUS TOGETHER Okyere Bonna, MBA, 2008-11-18 Okyere Bonna combines investigative writing with the heart of an experienced and caring teacher His graduate level training is from the prestigious Franciscan University of

Steubenville in Ohio in the United States where he earned his MBA and MS in Education He earned his BA with honors in Political Science and Religions from the University of Ghana where he served as SRC Secretary and as executive committee member of the National Union of Ghana Students NUGS in 1989 90 Okyere is a soccer fan and has also played amateur soccer at the secondary and college levels He attended Opoku Ware School and St Louis Secondary School for his O level and A Level certification respectively He is also affiliated with Konongo Odumasi and Asanteman Secondary Schools as well as Kwame Nkrumah University of Science and Technology where he completed a year studies of sociology in 1986 Okyere Bonna has published various books and articles on social and political issues concerning Ghana He is also known for his Vocabulary Trailblazers For Christian Youth Series a line of books written to enhance Christian education He is a former Vice President of Ghana Investment Club Okyere Bonna currently serves as the Secretary of the Ghana Leadership Union Inc and a business executive in the United States
