Qa) Write an account of the developments leading to Roosevelt's 1932 election (15 r

Hoover's lack of popularity following the Wall Street Crash of 1929 was a factor in Roosevelt's victory in 1932. Hoover was referred to as the 'do nothing' president due to his perceived lack of action and presence during the subsequent economic crisis. Many Americans despised him. Various items in the 1930s were given nicknames in his honor. Hoover's name was used to show their contempt of him; shanty towns that sprung up after the crash were called 'Hoovervilles', pieces of cardboard that people used to repair their homes were called 'Hoover Leather' and Ford Model T's which were pulled apart to fuel them were called 'Hoover's V's'.

Qb) Discuss the importance of changes in the lives of women in the 1920s (25 marks)

During the 1920s, there were significant changes in the lives of some women. While, middle-class, urban women were given more freedom and, taking advantage of this newfound liberation, were able to move away from their traditional gender roles for the first time. However, this was only a relatively small percentage of women, and for the vast majority there was far more continuity than change. As a result, it could be reasonably argued that the changes in the lives of women over the 1920s were of limited importance.
