A New Modern Philosophy Gwendolyn Marshall, Susanne J. Sreedhar, 2023-07-11 The seventeenth and eighteenth centuries are arguably the most important period in philosophy's history given that they set a new and broad foundation for subsequent philosophical thought Over the last decade however discontent among instructors has grown with coursebooks unwavering focus on the era's seven most well known philosophers all of them white and male and on their exclusively metaphysical and epistemological concerns While few dispute the centrality of these figures and the questions they raised the modern era also included essential contributions from women like Margaret Cavendish Elisabeth of Bohemia Mary Wollstonecraft and milie Du Ch telet as well as important non white thinkers such as Anton Wilhelm Amo Julien Raimond and Ottobah Cugoano At the same time there has been increasing recognition that moral and political philosophy philosophy of the natural world and philosophy of race also vibrant areas of the seventeenth and eighteenth centuries need to be better integrated with the standard coverage of metaphysics and epistemology The second edition of A New Modern Philosophy The Inclusive Anthology of Primary Sources addresses in one volume these valid criticisms Weaving together multiple voices and all of the era s vibrant areas of debate this volume sets a new agenda for studying modern philosophy It includes a wide range of readings from 36 thinkers integrating essential works from all of the canonical writers along with the previously neglected philosophers Editors Gwendolyn Marshall and Susanne Sreedhar provide an introduction for each author that sets the thinker in his or her time period as well as in the longer debates to which the thinker contributed Study questions and suggestions for further reading conclude each chapter At the end of the volume in addition to a comprehensive subject index the book includes 13 Syllabus Modules which will help instructors use the book to easily set up different topically structured courses such as The Citizen and the State Mind and Matter Education Theories of Perception or Metaphysics of Causation And an eResource offers a wide range of supplemental online resources including essay assignments exams quizzes student handouts reading questions and scholarly articles on teaching the history of philosophy Key Updates to the Second Edition Provides an expanded table of contents and the addition of new chapters on Galileo and Sor Juana Ines De La Cruz Expands readings and coverage in chapters on Spinoza and Descartes Offers improved Syllabus Modules at the back of the book Includes a new Student Introduction Updates bibliographic information

Readings in Modern Philosophy, Vol. 1 Roger Ariew, Eric Watkins, 2000-01-01 This anthology offers the key works of Descartes Spinoza and Leibniz in their entirety or in substantial selections along with a rich selection of associated texts by other leading thinkers of the period

The 60-second Philosopher Andrew Pessin, 2013-10-01 The budding thinker s Little Book of Calm Philosophy means love of wisdom in Greek Unfortunately as much as we all love wisdom we don t all have the time to spend acquiring it This fabulous little book provides the perfect antidote Split into 60 one minute chapters Andrew Pessin offers you a snippet of philosophical wisdom everyday giving you something to think about on your coffee break Guaranteed to sharpen your mental faculties as well as entertaining you with its witty humour The Sixty Second Philosopher will delight aspiring thinkers everywhere

The Revolt of Unreason Michael Candelaria, 2012-01-01 This book examines solutions to the crisis of modernity proposed by the Spanish philosopher Miguel de Unamuno and the Mexican philosopher Antonio Caso Acceptance of the objective claims of modern scientific rationality and the consequent rejection of the objective validity of artistic moral and religious claims generates the crisis of modernity The problem is that of justifying artistic moral and religious claims

Miguel de Unamuno in his classic work The Tragic Sense of Life addresses the conflict between the belief in personal immortality and modern scientific rationality. Holding that there is no rational justification for the belief in immortality, Unamuno finds a solution in a saving scepticism to act as if he deserved immortality. In his book Existence as Economy as Art and Charity, Caso attempts to create an a posteriori metaphysics based on the current results of science supplemented by the intuitions of art and morality. In doing so, Caso believes that he has enlarged the scope of the knowable to include objects of art, morality, and religion. Unamuno, by accepting the strict line of demarcation between faith and reason, has no other recourse but to turn to decisionism. By turning to intuitionism, Caso believes that he has blurred the line of demarcation. Decisionism and intuitionism therefore are worthy of further exploration.

Uncommon Sense Andrew Pessin, 2015-02-03

In Uncommon Sense, Andrew Pessin leads us on an entertaining tour of philosophy explaining the pivotal moments when the greatest minds solved some of the knottiest conundrums by asserting some very strange things. But the great philosophers don't merely make unusual claims; they offer powerful arguments for those claims that you can't easily dismiss. And these arguments suggest that the world is much stranger than you could have imagined. You neither will nor won't do certain things in the future like wear your blue shirt tomorrow. But your blue shirt isn't really blue because colors don't exist in physical objects; they're only in your mind. Time is an illusion. Your thoughts are not inside your head. Everything you believe about morality is false. Animals don't have minds. There is no physical world at all. In eighteen lively, intelligent chapters spanning the ancient Greeks and contemporary thinkers, Pessin examines the most unusual ideas, how they have influenced the course of Western thought, and why, despite being so odd, they just might be correct. Here is popular philosophy at its finest, sure to entertain as it enlightens.

Making Space for Knowing Aaron B. Creller, 2017-12-20

Making Space for Knowing A Capacious Approach to Comparative Epistemology is an intervention in mainstream Western epistemology, especially as it relates to theories of knowledge, knowing, and knowers. Through its focus on propositional knowledge, contemporary mainstream epistemology has narrowed the scope of the definition of knowledge to a point where it fails to accurately describe the structure of knowing and prevents a genuine understanding of knowledge across different contexts and cultures. By drawing on resources in analytic philosophy and hermeneutics, Aaron B. Creller outlines an approach to comparative epistemology that makes space for the particularity of non-Western approaches to knowing. It then further develops this model by engaging with classical Chinese philosophy and twentieth-century Chinese epistemologists, offering a set of best practices for comparative epistemology.
