Mona Baker In Other Words Chapter Seven:

Introducing Translation Studies Jeremy Munday, Sara Ramos Pinto, Jacob Blakesley, 2022-05-02 Introducing Translation Studies remains the definitive guide to the theories and concepts that make up the field of translation studies. Providing an accessible and up to date overview it has long been the essential textbook on courses worldwide. This fifth edition has been fully revised and continues to provide a balanced and detailed guide to the theoretical landscape. Each theory is applied to a wide range of languages including Bengali Chinese English French German Italian Punjabi Portuguese and Spanish. A broad spectrum of texts is analysed including the Bible Buddhist sutras Beowulf the fiction of Proust and the theatre of Shakespeare European Union and UNESCO documents a range of contemporary films a travel brochure a children's cookery book and the translations of Harry Potter. Each chapter comprises an introduction outlining the translation theory or theories illustrative texts with translations case studies a chapter summary and discussion points and exercises. New features in this fifth edition include New material to keep up with developments in research and practice this includes the sociology of translation chapter where a new case study employs a Bourdieusian approach there is also newly structured discussion on translation in the digital age and audiovisual and machine translation Revised discussion points and updated figures and tables New in chapter activities with links in the enhanced ebook to online materials and articles to encourage independent research An extensive updated companion website with video introductions and journal articles to accompany each chapter online exercises an interactive timeline weblinks and PowerPoint slides for teacher support This is a practical user friendly textbook ideal for students and researchers on courses in translation and translation studies

Translation and Violent Conflict Moira Inghilleri, Sue-Ann Harding, 2010-01-30 First Published in 2010 Translators and interpreters are frequently found at the centre of attempts to wage war or negotiate peace between opposing factions Translation and interpreting also serve a vital function in communicating a conflict locally and globally as interested parties attempt to legitimize their actions appeal for assistance and enlist support for their cause and the condemnation of their stated enemy The unavoidable independent exercises of judgement that interpreters and translators make through their participation in or re narration of a conflict and the decisions that go with them provide clear and strong evidence for the lead role in the construction of meanings and identities that interpreters and translators assume in situations of conflict irrespective of their historical or geopolitical setting This special issue of The Translator explores the role of translators and interpreters in a number of conflicts from the 20th century to the present Drawing on fictional and non fictional texts legal and peacekeeping settings and reports from war zones contributors to this volume explore the overlapping themes of mediation agency and ethics in relation to translators and interpreters as they negotiate the political social cultural linguistic and ethical factors that converge often dangerously in situations of armed conflict

Translating Feminism in China Zhongli Yu, 2015-06-05 This book explores translation of feminism in China through examining several Chinese translations of two typical feminist works

The Second Sex TSS Beauvoir 1949 1952 and The Vagina Monologues TVM Ensler 1998 TSS exposes the cultural construction of woman while TVM reveals the pervasiveness of sexual oppression toward women The female body and female sexuality including lesbian sexuality constitute a challenge to the Chinese translators due to cultural differences and sexuality still being a sensitive topic in China This book investigates from gender and feminist perspectives how TSS and TVM have been translated and received in China with special attention to how the translators meet the challenges Since translation is the gateway to the reception of feminism an examination of the translations should reveal the response to feminism of the translator as the first reader and gatekeeper and how feminism is translated both ideologically and technically in China The translators decisions are discussed within the social historical and political contexts Translating Feminism in China discusses among other issues Feminist Translation Practice Theory and Studies Translating the Female Body and Sexuality Translating Lesbianism Censorship Sexuality and Translation This book will be relevant to postgraduate students and researchers of translation studies It will also interest academics interested in feminism gender studies and Chinese literature and culture Zhongli Yu is Assistant Professor of Translation Studies at the University of Nottingham Ningbo China UNNC

Linguistic Issues and Quality Assessment of English-Arabic Audiovisual Translation Ahmad Khuddro, 2019-01-17 Due to a dearth of academic references in the area of English Arabic audiovisual translation AVT this book represents a unique resource in that it explores dubbing and subtitling into Arabic a topic hardly discussed among academics both in the Arab world and worldwide The book starts with some linguistic and audiovisual background and lays new foundations for a discussion about the similarities between the translation of drama texts and AVT It then moves on to highlight some grammatical syntactic semantic and functional challenges faced in subtitling with examples from various recent audiovisual material as deictics exophora idiomatic language register negation duality and plurality and subject predicate agreement in the target subtitled text The book s originality is manifest in its investigation of the obstacles encountered by new anonymous subtitlers by providing evidence in the form of genuine samples of their work The book concludes with some original subtitling quality assessment reports and presents effective strategies of subtitling Babel

, 1994 Eurocentrism, Qur'anic Translation and Decoloniality Ahd Othman, 2024-05-22 Eurocentrism Qur anic Translation and Decoloniality contributes to the understanding of Eurocentrism in Translation Studies and engages with the concept through the lens of scholarship on Arabic and Qur an translation This book calls for a deeper consideration of Eurocentrism as essential for several debates in the discipline including its scientific character and future development It claims that the angle of Arabic and Qur an translation is a valuable and nearly unexploited area where tensions in translation scholarship can play out in revealing ways The book also draws connections between Eurocentrism Qur an translation and decolonial thought in order to highlight decoloniality as a useful framework for imagining a post Eurocentric discipline The book will appeal to scholars and postgraduate students and researchers interested in Translation Studies particularly within
