

MISSION: IMPOSSIBLE THEME

from the Paramount Television Series MISSION: IMPOSSIBLE

1

By LALO SCHIFRIN

Moderately, with drive

The musical score is written for piano in 5/4 time. It consists of four systems, each with a grand staff (treble and bass clefs). The first system (measures 1-3) begins with a piano (p) dynamic marking. The bass line features a rhythmic pattern of eighth and sixteenth notes with various accidentals (flats, naturals, sharps). The treble line is mostly rests. The second system (measures 4-6) introduces a melody in the treble line, starting with a half note G4 (flat), followed by quarter notes A4 (flat), B4 (flat), and C5 (flat). The bass line continues its rhythmic pattern. The third system (measures 7-9) shows the treble line with chords and single notes, including a half note G4 (flat) and a quarter note F#4. The bass line continues. The fourth system (measures 10-12) continues the treble melody with notes like G4 (flat), A4 (flat), and B4 (flat), and includes a half note C5 (flat). The bass line continues with its characteristic rhythmic pattern.

Music Outside the Lines Maud Hickey, 2012-11-29 Music Outside the Lines is an informative and practical resource for all who are invested in making music composition an integral part of curriculum Author Maud Hickey addresses the practical needs of music educators by offering both a well grounded justification for teaching music composition and also a compendium of useful instructional ideas and classroom activities Hickey begins with a rationale for teachers to begin composition activities in their own classrooms with a thoughtful argument that demonstrates that all music teachers possess the skills and training needed to take children along the path toward composing satisfying musical compositions even if they themselves have never taken formal composition lessons She also addresses some of the stickier issues that plague teaching music composition in schools such as assessment notation and technology Most importantly she introduces a curricular model for teaching composition a model which provides an array of composition activities to try in the music classrooms and studios These activities encourage musical and creative growth through music composition while they are organized in logical units corresponding to existing teaching modules they also offer jumping off points for music teachers to exercise their own creative thinking and create music composition activities that are customized to their classes and needs As a whole Music Outside the Lines both successfully reasons that music composition should be at the core of school music curriculum and also provides inservice and pre service educators with an essential resource and compendium of practical tips and plans for fulfilling this goal John Thompson's Modern Course for the Piano: The fourth grade book John Thompson, 1937

Crime and Spy Jazz on Screen Since 1971 Derrick Bang, 2020-04-16 Henry Mancini's Peter Gunn theme Lalo Schiffrin's Mission Impossible theme Isaac Hayes theme from Shaft These iconic melodies have remained a part of the pop culture landscape since their debuts back when movie studios and TV production companies employed full orchestral ensembles to provide a jazz backdrop for the suspenseful adventures of secret agents private detectives cops spies and heist minded criminals Hundreds of additional films and television shows made from the mid 1950s and beyond have been propelled by similarly swinging title themes and underscores many of which have undeservedly faded into obscurity This meticulously researched book begins with Hayes game changing music for Shaft and honors the careers of traditional jazz composers who as the 1970s gave way to the 80s and beyond resolutely battled against the pernicious influx of synth jukebox scores and a growing corporate disinterest in lavish ensembles Fans frustrated by the lack of attention paid to jazz soundtrack composers including Mort Stevens Laurie Johnson Mike Post Earle Hagen David Shire Elmer Bernstein and many many others will find solace in these pages along with all the information needed to enhance one's music library But this is only half the story the saga's origins are discussed in this book's companion volume Crime and Action Jazz on Screen 1950-1970 Through the Dark Night Joyce Morgan, 2011 Keyboard, 1996 The Encyclopedia of Film Composers Thomas S. Hischak, 2015-04-16 For more than a century original music has been composed for the cinema From the early days when live music accompanied silent films to the present in which a composer can draw upon a full orchestra or a lone synthesizer to embody a composition music has been an integral element of most films By the late 1930s movie studios had established music departments and some of the greatest names in film music emerged during Hollywood's Golden Age including Alfred Newman Max Steiner Dimitri Tiomkin and Bernard Herrmann Over the decades other creators of screen music offered additional memorable scores and some composers such as Henry Mancini Randy Newman and John Williams have become household names The Encyclopedia of Film Composers features entries on more than 250 movie composers from around the world It not only provides facts about these artists but also explains what makes each composer notable and discusses his or her music in detail Each entry includes Biographical material Important dates Career highlights Analysis of the composer's musical style Complete list of movie credits This book brings recognition to the many men and women who have written music for movies over the past one hundred years In addition to composers from the United States and Great Britain artists from dozens of other countries are also represented A rich resource of movie music history The Encyclopedia of Film Composers will be of interest to fans of cinema in general as well as those who want to learn more about the many talented individuals who have created memorable scores
