Moroccan Fashion Design Tradition And Modernity Dress And Fashion Research:

Moroccan Fashion M. Angela Jansen, 2014-11-20 Moroccan garment design and consumption have experienced major shifts in recent history transforming from a traditional craft based enterprise to a thriving fashion industry Influenced by western fashion dress has become commoditized and has expanded from tailoring to designer labels This book presents the first detailed ethnographic study of Moroccan fashion Drawing on interviews with three generations of designers and the lifestyle press the author provides an in depth analysis of the development of urban dress which reveals how traditional dress has not been threatened but rather produced and consumed in different ways With chapters examining themes such as dress and politics gender faith modernity and exploring topics from craft to e fashion this book will be essential reading for students and scholars of fashion anthropology material culture sociology cultural studies gender studies and related fields

Modern Fashion Traditions M. Angela Jansen, Jennifer Craik, 2016-07-28 Modern Fashion Traditions questions the dynamics of fashion systems and spaces of consumption outside the West Too often these fashion systems are studied as a mere and recent result of globalization and Western fashion influences but this book draws on a wide range of non Western case studies and analyses their similarities and differences as legitimate fashion systems contesting Eurocentric notions of tradition and modernity continuity versus change and the West versus the Rest Preconceptions about non Western fashion are challenged through diverse case studies from international scholars including street style identity in Bhutan the influence of Ottoman cultural heritage on contemporary Turkish fashion design and an investigation into the origins of the word fashion in Chinese Negotiating tradition foreign influences and the contemporary global dominance of Western fashion cities Modern Fashion Traditions will give readers a clearer understanding of non Western fashion identities in the present Accessibly written this ground breaking text makes an essential contribution to the study of non Western fashion and will be an important resource for students of fashion history and theory anthropology and cultural studies Creating African

Fashion Histories JoAnn McGregor, Heather Akou, Nicola Stylianou, 2022-04-05 Creating African Fashion Histories examines the stark disjuncture between African self fashioning and museum practices Conventionally African clothing textiles and body adornments were classified by museums as examples of trade goods art and ethnographic materials never as fashion Counterposing the dynamism of African fashion with museums historic holdings thus provides a unique way of confronting ways in which coloniality persists in knowledge and institutions today This volume brings together an interdisciplinary group of scholars and curators to debate sources and approaches for constructing African fashion histories and to examine their potential for decolonizing museums fashion studies and global cultural history The editors of this volume seek to answer questions such as How can researchers use museum collections to reveal traces of past self fashioning that are obscured by racialized forms of knowledge and institutional practice How can archival visual oral ethnographic and online sources be deployed to capture the diversity of African sartorial pasts How can scholars and curators decolonize the Eurocentric frames of thinking encapsulated in historic collections and current curricula Can new collections of African fashion decolonize museum practice From Moroccan fashion bloggers to upmarket Lagos designers the voices in this ground breaking collection reveal fascinating histories and geographies of circulation within and beyond the continent and its diasporic communities

Fashion in Multiple Chinas Wessie Ling, Simona Segre-Reinach, 2018-04-20 Much has been written about the transformation of China from being a clothing manufacturing site to a fast rate fashion consuming society Less however has been written on the process of making Chinese fashion The expert contributors to Fashion in Multiple Chinas explore how the many Chinese fashions operate across the widespread fragmented and diffused Chinese diaspora They confront the idea of Chinese nationalism as one nation as well as of China as a single reality in revealing the realities of Chinese fashion as diverse and comprising multiple practices They also demonstrate how the making of Chinese fashion is composed of numerous layers often involving a web of global entanglements between manufacturing and circulation retailing and branding They cover the mechanics of the PRC fashion industry the creative economy of Chinese fashion its retail and branding and the cultural identity of Chinese fashion from the diasporas comprising the transglobal landscape of fashion production The Stage is Set Lee Simonson, 1975 Artbibliographies Modern, 2005 Current Research in Britain

Attire to Modern Dress Constanța Vintilă-Ghițulescu, 2011-07-12 The essays in this volume discuss the visible elements such as clothing jewellery the opulence of the elite fashion and styles but they also inform the reader about the manner in which these were connected to political and social developments The articles in this volume highlight important themes regarding the history of textiles the shifting of trading and manufacturing centres the professionalization of the various fields in the history of fashion and the connection with the introduction and proliferation of steam powered machines and later of electrical equipment Clothes and garments are also part of the social and political transformations brought about by the multiple modernisations of the various Balkan societies Fabrics colours threads barrels and buttons lace and jewellery are marvellous documents that bring to life details of the remote worlds of our ancestors helping us understand the complex meanings of sartorial appearances The Balkans and the Orient are regions that offer promising avenues of multidisciplinary research concerning clothes and fashion as indicators of social status and political change      Arab Dress, A Short History Norman Stillman, 2022-06-08 This richly illustrated volume is a historical and ethnographic study of one important aspect of Arab and Islamic material culture clothing While in part descriptive its principal focus is on the evolution and transformations of modes of dress over the past 1400 years throughout the Middle East North Africa and for the Middle Ages Islamic Spain Arab clothing is treated as part of an Islamic vestimentary system and is discussed within the context of the social religious esthetic and political trends of each age In addition to the five historical chapters three chapters are devoted to major themes of Arab costume history the dress code for non Muslims the important socio economic and political institution of luxury fabrics and garments of honor and the most well known and frequently misunderstood institution of veiling      Fashion and Orientalism Adam Geczy, 2013-08-01 Orientalism is a central factor within the fashion system both subtle and overt In this groundbreaking book the author shows the extent of the influence that the Orient had and continues to have on fashion Our concept of Western fashion is unthinkable without it whether in terms of the growth of the cotton industry or of garments we take for granted such as the dressing gown From pre modern to contemporary times this book demonstrates that in the realms of fashion the Orient is not simply a construction or a fascination of the imperial West with its eastern other Rather it reveals the extent of cross pollination exchange and multiple translation that has taken place between East and West for the last 500 years Exploring topics including Chinoiserie masquerade bohemianism Japonisme the de Orientalization of the Orient perfume and the birth of couture Fashion and Orientalism is an essential read for students and scholars of fashion cultural studies and history      Fashion Theory Volume 13 Issue 2 Victoria Rovine, 2009-06-15 This is a special issue of Fashion theory which covers African fashion While African dress has been the topic of much research and popular fascination as an element of traditional African cultures the work of professional African fashion designers in contemporary Africa has received very little attention These four articles accompanied by an introduction by the editor address diverse aspects of both the creativity of changing dress styles in Africa today and in one article African influence on Western fashion design

African Fashion, Global Style Victoria L. Rovine, 2015-01-12 African Fashion Global Style provides a lively look at fashion international networks of style material culture and the world of African aesthetic expression Victoria L Rovine introduces fashion designers whose work reflects African histories and cultures both conceptually and stylistically and demonstrates that dress styles associated with indigenous cultures may have all the hallmarks of high fashion Taking readers into the complexities of influence and inspiration manifested through fashion this book highlights the visually appealing widely accessible and highly adaptable styles of African dress that flourish on the global fashion market A Cultural History of Dress and Fashion in the Renaissance Elizabeth Currie, 2018-11-01 Spurred by an increasingly international and competitive market the Renaissance saw the development of many new fabrics and the use of highly prized ingredients imported from the New World In response to a thirst for the new fashion s pace of change accelerated the production of garments provided employment for an increasingly significant proportion of the working population and entrepreneurial artisans began to transform even the most functional garments into fashionable ones Anxieties concerning vanity and the power of clothing to mask identities heightened fears of fashion s corrupting influence and heralded the great age of sumptuary legislation intended to police status and gender through dress Drawing on sources from surviving garments to artworks to moralising pamphlets this richly illustrated volume presents essays on textiles production and distribution the body belief gender and sexuality status ethnicity and visual and literary representations to illustrate the diversity and cultural significance of dress and fashion in the period African Dress Karen Hansen, D. Soyini Madison, Karen Tranberg Hansen, Soyini Madison, 2013-04-11 Dress and fashion practices in Africa and the diaspora are dynamic and diverse whether on the street or on the fashion runway Focusing on the dressed body as a performance site African Dress explores how ideas and practices of dress contest or legitimize existing power structures through expressions of individual identity and the cultural and political order Drawing on innovative interdisciplinary research by established and up and coming scholars the book examines real life projects and social transformations that are deeply political revolving around individual and public goals of dignity respect status and morality With its remarkable scope this book will attract students and scholars of fashion and dress material culture and consumption performance studies and art history in relation to Africa and on a global scale Ottoman Dress and Design in the West Charlotte Jirousek, Sara Catterall, 2019-01-25 This amply illustrated attractive book is valuable for dress history scholars an ideal textbook for courses on clothing and cultural history The Journal of Dress History Ottoman Dress and Design in the West is a richly illustrated exploration of the relationship between West and Near East through the visual culture of dress Charlotte Jirousek examines the history of dress and fashion in the broader context of western relationships with the Mediterranean world from the dawn of Islam through the end of the twentieth century The significance of dress is made apparent by the author s careful attention to its political economic and cultural context The reader comes to understand that dress reflects not simply the self and one s relation to community but also that community s relation to a wider world through trade colonization religion and technology The chapters provide broad historical background on Ottoman influence and European exoticization of that influence while the captions and illustrations provide detailed studies of illuminations paintings and sculptures to show how these influences were absorbed into everyday living Through the medium of dress Jirousek details a continually shifting Ottoman frontier that is closely tied to European and American history In doing so she explores and celebrates an essential source of influence that for too long has been relegated to the periphery

The Handbook of Fashion Studies Sandy Black,Amy de la Haye,Joanne Entwistle,Regina A. Root,Agnès Rocamora,Helen Thomas,2014-01-02 The Handbook of Fashion Studies identifies an innovative spectrum of thematic approaches key strands and interdisciplinary concepts that continue to push forward the boundaries of fashion studies The book is divided into seven sections Fashion Identity and Difference Spaces of Fashion Fashion and Materiality Fashion Agency and Policy Science Technology and New fashion Fashion and Time and Sustainable Fashion in a Globalised world Each section consists of approximately four essays authored by established researchers in the field from the UK USA Netherlands Sweden Canada and Australia The essays are written by international subject specialists who each engage with their section s theme in the light of their own discipline and provide clear case studies to further knowledge on fashion This consistency provides clarity and permits comparative analysis The handbook will be essential reading for students of fashion as well as professionals in the industry
