Giacomo Girolamo Casanova de Seingalt was an Italian adventurer and author from the Republic of Venice. His autobiography is regarded as one of the most authentic sources of the customs and norms of European social life during the 18th century. He was so famous as a womanizer that his name remains synonymous with the art of seduction. He associated with European royalty, popes and cardinals along with luminaries such as Voltaire, Goethe and Mozart. He spent his last years in Bohemia as a librarian in Count Waldstein's household where he also wrote the story of his life. As noted in the introduction by Arthur Symonds, these memoirs are the history of a unique life, a unique personality, one of the greatest of autobiographies, as a record of adventures, they are more entertaining than Gil Blas or Monte Cristo or any of the imaginary travels and escapes and masquerades in life which have been written in imitation of them.
