My Lifelong Challenge Singapore's Bilingual Journey:

Lee Kuan Yew, My Lifelong Challenge Kuan Yew Lee, 2012      Lee Kuan Yew, My Lifelong Challenge Kuan Yew Lee, 2012      Singapore, My Country: Biography Of M Bala Subramanion Nilanjana Sengupta, 2016-06-29 When after three decades of research Singapore could produce its own water the little city state was said to have lost its vulnerability No longer would every policy have to bend at the knees for water survival It was finally time to celebrate liberty When did the same moment come in Bala's life Was it when in mid Atlantic he heard of his promotion as Controller of Posts Or was it when he was appointed by the President as member of the Parliamentary Elections Minority Committee Or was it at a moment of tragic loss when he realised he had nothing more to lose Singapore My Country tells M Bala Subramanion's story a second generation Indian who lost his father to the Death Railway witnessed Subhas Chandra Bose at the Padang and later emerged as not only a senior civil servant but the man behind multiple social interventions living in a fast evolving Singapore The histories of the man and his nation remain seamlessly intertwined each peppered with equal doses of endeavour ingenuity and a sheer will to survive      Reassessing Lee Kuan Yew's Strategic Thought Ang Cheng Guan, 2023-03-13 Building on the author's 2012 book Lee Kuan Yew's Strategic Thought this new book presents a comprehensive overview of Lee Kuan Yew's strategic thought over the course of his entire life It analyses the factors underlying Lee Kuan Yew's thinking discusses his own writings and speeches and shows how his thinking on foreign policy security and international relations evolved It also appraises writing about Lee Kuan Yew and memorialisation of him assessing how views of his legacy have changed and continue to change      Singapore-china Relations: 50 Years Yongnian Zheng, Liang Fook Lye, 2015-11-06 Showcasing the substantive and multi faceted Singapore China relationship this book examines the political economic socio cultural people to people and even military exchanges between the two countries It also highlights flagship projects and other key private sector led projects that have become hallmarks of bilateral cooperation The book argues that the current level of cooperation is built on the earlier foundation laid by Lee Kuan Yew and Deng Xiaoping In a way the bilateral relationship is a unique one For one Deng Xiaoping had singled out Singapore as a model for China's reforms and China today continues to find Singapore's experience relevant Singapore is also learning from China in the process The two countries also have a number of bilateral institutional mechanisms that have become more important in reviewing existing cooperation and identifying new ways of working together Rather than simply provide an overview of bilateral relations the book highlights the unique or distinguishing features of the Singapore China relationship      My Nantah Story Tan Kok Chiang, In 1958 more than a hundred thousand people attended the inauguration ceremony of Nanyang University Nantah a true people's university that was founded with the support of all strata of society from tycoons to trishaw men After producing 12 000 graduates and winning global recognition the institution the first Chinese medium university outside China held her final convocation in 1980 Drawing from the author's own research and diverse sources that have never before been available in English this book tells the fascinating story of Nantah's short and eventful life and deconstructs the many myths and misconceptions that continue to surround her. Errata: Mr Lee Hsien Loong's quote on page 23 was taken from NUS's 60th anniversary lecture and not the 16th anniversary lecture as printed. Reader Reviews: This book is important reading for all Malaysians. It captures a brief moment in our history when a group of oppressed people rose up, set aside differences and joined hands in the face of great challenges and severe resistance to build an edifice that aspired to a greater vision for mankind. Nanyang University is gone but the Nantah spirit lives on. May we one day reclaim it for Malaya. Thum Ping Tjin, Historian, Director of Project Southeast Asia, Oxford University. Tan Kok Chiang has succeeded in writing a remarkable book which can certainly be regarded as a comprehensive history of the old Nanyang University. More than this, his monumental work can also be upheld as a significant addition to the growing corpus of books considered to be alternative or people's history, different from and breaking the monopoly of such official elite versions of history as exemplified by Lee Kuan Yew's The Singapore Story. Syed Husin Ali, Member Malaysian Senate and President, People's History Centre.

Lee Kuan Yew's Educational Legacy Oon Seng Tan, Ee Ling Low, David Hung, 2017-03-06. The late Mr Lee Kuan Yew (1923-2015) laid the foundations for the creation of a first world education system in Singapore. Like many other issues concerning the country, his ideas for education were transported in a red box which he took with him wherever he went, even up to his last days. Inside it was always something designed to help create a better life for all Singaporeans. The editors of this volume were inspired by the idea of Mr Lee's red box and by the Founding Father's selfless drive to continuously improve the country he loved. As such, the book explores in detail Mr Lee's plans, including chapters on Education, The Man and His Ideas, Foundational Pillars of Singapore's Education, Education for Nationhood and Nation Building, and 21st Century Readiness and Adaptability. The chapters also include the author's visions, no matter how great or small, for the future of education in Singapore. They explore how Mr Lee's educational policies resulted in a system that attracts the right and best candidates to become teachers, that forms them into effective teachers, specialists and leaders, that ensures they and the education system are able to deliver the best possible learning for every child, and that establishes a legacy that has allowed the education system to continue to move forward while tackling the challenges of its success. From the little red box came the ideas that led to the country's meteoric rise. Likewise, the editors hope this book will lead to a brighter future in education.

Translation of Autobiography Susan XU Yun, 2017-11-15. This book presents an interdisciplinary study that straddles four academic fields: namely, autobiography, stylistics, narratology, and translation studies. It shows that foregrounding is manifested in the language of autobiography, alerting readers to an authorial tone with certain ideological affiliations. In refuting the presumed conflation between the author, narrator, and character in autobiography, the study emphasizes the reader's role in constructing an implied author. The issues of implied translator, assumed translation, and rewriting are explored through a comparative analysis of the English and Chinese autobiographies by Singapore's founding father, Lee Kuan Yew. The analysis identifies different foregrounding practices and attributes these differences to an implied translator Further evidence derived from narrative communicative situations in the two autobiographies underscores divergent personae of the implied authors The study aims to establish a deeper understanding of how translation and rewriting have a far reaching impact on the self and world making functions of autobiography This book will be of special interest to scholars and students of linguistics literature translation and political science
