Korea's Divided Families James Foley,2003-08-29 The divided families problem is a serious social issue in North and South Korea involving hundreds of thousands of first generation divided family members most of whom have not seen their relatives since the Korean War It is the most pressing humanitarian issue between the two Koreas and is connected to the greater issue of human rights in North Korea today However little serious academic work exists on the subject in either English or Korean This new study based on research conducted in Korea including interviews in 2001 with Korean families who benefited from the most recent exchanges addresses the many issues surrounding the divided family problem and highlights its importance in the path towards Korean rapprochement Disappearing Pure Korean Place Names Lee

Ki-bong,2023-04-03 Having been involved in sorting out and studying Korean place names for 18 years I feel regretful in my heart The Hanja transcriptions of pure Korean place names which were written in old maps and geography books were organized according to how they sounded At some point I realized that the Hanja transcriptions were distorted versions of the names that were really used However as I had to sort out so many names in a short period of time I could not even think of fixing the issues and always felt regretful in a corner of my mind Writing this book is my small struggle to relieve that regretful feeling at least a little Agenda ,1981 The Journal of Korean Studies, Volume 21, Number 2 (Fall 2016)
