concerns of particular pertinence to current scholarship these studies also serve the important practical function of sensitising the reader to both the possibilities and limitations of this sort of interdisciplinary undertaking Without foregrounding the visual these contributions aim to look at verbal visual interaction through the prism of equality and balance that marks word and image studies that is without valorising one to the detriment of the other The choice of images as objects of study reflects the democratisation of the visual domain advocated by visual culture studies from theatre iconography and painted portraits of actors to drawing books and educational prints graphic satire and royal portraiture conversation pieces and domestic interiors literary illustrations and versified prints after well known paintings and engravings commissioned for calendars and periodicals If the choice of images is inclusive and diverse so is the choice of texts epistolary novels conduct manuals Salon criticism plays drawing books pamphlets historical writings verses accompanying engravings and satirical prints are among those examined from a word and image perspective The primary objective of this collection is to advance research in the field of word and image theory and methodology by stimulating dialogue on the rich and complex verbal visual interaction structuring mixed media of expression and underpinning cultural formations in eighteenth century Europe Peaceful coexistence mutual collaboration or striking collision how do words and images interact in eighteenth century art literature and culture How do they reflect and communicate values stereotypes and ideologies

World Art Studies Kitty Zijlmans, Wilfried Van Damme, 2008. This timely volume challenges the narrow Western centrism of most art historical models. Archeologists have found that for tens of thousands of years all human cultures have shared a desire for visual representation or expression. Yet the study of art history has traditionally focused on Western artworks of the past few centuries. World Art Studies examines the phenomenon of art through a broader cultural global and temporal perspective bringing together a uniquely exhaustive range of perspectives on art and borrowing approaches from the study of neuroscience evolutionary biology anthropology and geography as models alongside more conventional art historical perspectives. In musicology or linguistics using such diverse viewpoints for reflection and research is considered part of the normal process. In that spirit this volume goes beyond abstract models using case studies to demonstrate and examine specific methods of investigation.

BOOK JACKET Texte et image dans les mondes hispaniques et hispano-américains Jean-Pierre Castellani, Mónica Zapata, 2007. L'image présente de façon autonome ou associée d'autres éléments constitue un vecteur de plus en plus pratiqué et privilégié dans la transmission des savoirs des connaissances et des informations. S'il est presque impensable de concevoir une image seule le texte qui l'accompagne lui donnant son sens ou du moins un sens par la légende ou le commentaire il est de plus en plus difficile d'offrir un texte sans image du moins dans le champ de la communication. Pour couvrir ce champ nouveau.

Site-specificity Lothar Baumgarten, 2000. Since the work of Robert Smithson in the late 1960s the notion of site specificity has been crucial to an understanding of contemporary art. Extending the debate this book argues that the discipline of ethnography can enrich our conception of what site is. Commissioned essays interviews and visual projects by ethnographers artists and art critics reflect on this dialogue between art and ethnography.
