Isixhosa Paper for Grade 1:

Language of Instruction in Tanzania and South Africa - Highlights from a Project, 2010-01-01 This book is based on chapters in a series of four books from the first five years 2002-2006 of the Language of Instruction in Tanzania and South Africa LOITASA project. LOITASA is a NUFU funded Norwegian University Fund project which began in January 2002 and will continue through to the end of 2011. The chapters reflect the state of the research at the end of the first five years of LOITASA in 2006 and were selected by reviewers independent of the project. The selection of chapters brought together bring to the forefront the dilemmas facing developing countries as they seek to position themselves in an increasingly interconnected global system while at the same time maintaining a sense of national and regional identity. The chapters in this collection reflect both positive outcomes when the medium of instruction is a widely known language as well as the challenges of mother tongue instruction in countries where historically a powerful language like English has dominated. The four LOITASA books in this series from which the chapters in this book are drawn are Language of instruction in Tanzania and South Africa LOITASA published by E. Zubeida Desai, the South African project leader and Martha Qorro who is on the project steering committee in Tanzania. African Languages in Classrooms and Academia: Intellectualisation and Empowerment through Formal Education Xolisa Tshongolo, 2024-12-02 To date there have been few comprehensive books published which deal specifically with the role of African languages in academia and formal education. Motinyane Mletshe and Xolisa Tshongolo as editors have produced a book that fills this gap. In this timely collection of 21 chapters written in African languages and English the contributors offer a critique of both language practice in the classroom as well as language planning, policy creation and implementation challenges. A timely and innovative contribution in the area of language in education, teaching pedagogy as well as multilingualism.

Focus on Fresh Data on the Language of Instruction Debate in Tanzania and South Africa Birgit Brock-Utne, Zubeida Desai, Martha Qorro, 2006 This is a series of books from the LOITASA Language of Instruction in Tanzania and South Africa project. LOITASA is a NUFU funded Norwegian University Fund project which began in January 2002 and continued till the end of 2006. It is what in donor circles is known as a South-South North cooperation project which in this case involves research cooperation between South Africa, Tanzania and Norway. The first book entitled Language of instruction in Tanzania and South Africa LOITASA focused on the current language in education situation in the two countries by providing a description and analysis of existing language policies and practices. The Oxford Guide to the Bantu Languages Lutz Marten, Ellen Hurst-Harosh, Nancy C. Kula, Jochen Zeller, 2025 This volume brings together leading scholars from the African continent and beyond to provide a detailed account of the languages of the Bantu family. The book will be an essential resource for students and researchers specializing in the Bantu languages and for typologists and comparative linguists more broadly.
