The Routledge Handbook of Translanguaging in the Global South Kleber Aparecido da Silva, Leketi Makalela, 2026-01-30

The Routledge Handbook of Translanguaging in the Global South is a groundbreaking exploration of translanguaging as a decolonial contextually rooted and transformative language practice. Unlike conventional volumes that center Western frameworks, this handbook foregrounds indigenous knowledge systems, Southern theories, and the socio-cultural realities of the Global South. It challenges colonial language policies and rigid multilingual paradigms by showcasing how translanguaging can be a driver of educational equity, social justice, and linguistic inclusion. Drawing on case studies from regions such as South Africa, Brazil, and other postcolonial contexts, it provides practical applications for educators, policymakers, and researchers. Readers of this book include scholars in linguistics, education, sociology, and decolonial studies; educators and policymakers working in multilingual environments; and students exploring multilingual and cross-cultural education. By offering a blend of theoretical insights and practical tools, this book will benefit readers seeking innovative solutions to address linguistic marginalization. It will equip them with strategies to implement translanguaging as a core pedagogy promoting epistemic access, cognitive justice, and inclusive development across education systems in the Global South.

The People's Paper Peter Limb, 2012-09-01. This much-awaited volume uncovers the long-lost pages of the major African multilingual newspaper Abantu Batho. Founded in 1912 by African National Congress (ANC) convenor Pixley Seme with assistance from the Swazi Queen, it was published up until 1931, attracting the cream of African politicians, journalists, and poets. Mqhayi, Nontsisi, Mkgwetha, and Grendon. In its pages, burning issues of the day were articulated alongside cultural byways. The People's Paper, comprising both essays and an anthology, explores the complex movements and individuals that emerged in the almost twenty years of its publication. The essays contribute rich new material to provide clearer insights into South African politics and intellectual life. The anthology unveils a judicious selection of never-before-published columns from the paper, spanning every year of its life and drawn from repositories on three continents. Abantu Batho had a regional and international focus, and by examining all these dynamics across boundaries and disciplines, The People's Paper transcends established historiographical frontiers to fill a lacuna that scholars have long lamented. The African Book Publishing Record, 2001.

Extended Curriculum Programmes Tennyson Mgutshini, 2022-04-30. The introduction of ECPs in South African Universities is seen by many as South Africa's key strategy for addressing the problem of poor patterns of student success, and has its basis on the uncontested acceptance that an extended study duration may be necessary to bring some categories of learners to a level of parity with the readiness expectations of their course of study. Even so, this transformative strategic imperative has been plagued by a range of challenges that include poor systems readiness, poor selection mechanisms in the identification of ECP students, poor numeracy and literacy amongst students, and indifferent teacher involvement in ECPs. This volume offers a rare insight into many of the above recognised challenges and, in so doing, provides
