

God made Everything

Before the world came into being, God was, for He has no beginning or end. His Spirit hovered over a dark, formless, and empty place.

God said, "Let there be light!" Light sprang into being at the sound of His voice. God divided the light from the darkness. He named the light "day," and He called the darkness "night."

Evening and morning, day one ended.

God said, "Let a dome appear in the middle of the waters." A vast blue vault appeared in the midst of the waters. God called it "sky."

Evening and morning, day two ended.

God said, "Let the waters gather together and dry land appear." The land and the seas obeyed God's voice, but the land was empty and brown. "Let there be grass, flowers, and trees to cover the land." Green grass unfurled. Colorful flowers bloomed. Trees stood tall and straight.

God saw what He had done, and it was good.

Evening and morning, day three ended.

God said, "Let there be two lights to mark time and days, seasons and years. A greater one shall rule day and the lesser shall reign over the night." Sun and moon appeared in the sky, and God sprinkled the universe with twinkling stars.

God saw it was good. Evening and morning, day four ended.
