Subordinating Intelligence David P. Oakley, 2019-03-15 In the late eighties and early nineties driven by the post Cold War environment and lessons learned during military operations United States policy makers made intelligence support to the military the Intelligence Community's top priority In response to this demand the CIA and DoD instituted policy and organizational changes that altered their relationship with one another While debates over the future of the Intelligence Community were occurring on Capitol Hill the CIA and DoD were expanding their relationship in peacekeeping and nation building operations in Somalia and the Balkans By the late 1990s some policy makers and national security professionals became concerned that intelligence support to military operations had gone too far In Subordinating Intelligence The DoD CIA Post Cold War Relationship David P Oakley reveals that despite these concerns no major changes to national intelligence or its priorities were implemented These concerns were forgotten after 9 11 as the United States fought two wars and policy makers increasingly focused on tactical and operational actions As policy makers became fixated with terrorism and the United States fought in Iraq and Afghanistan the CIA directed a significant amount of its resources toward global counterterrorism efforts and in support of military operations Congressional Record United States.

Congress, 2015 ProQuest Statistical Abstract of the United States 2018 ProQuest, Bernan Press, 2017-12-15 The Statistical Abstract of the United States has provided a statistical portrait of social political demographic and economic conditions of America since 1878 This 2018 edition continues the heritage begun so long ago by the U S government with the U S Census Bureau being the last agency to produce the compendium at government expense Now in our sixth annual edition Bernan and ProQuest carry on the proud tradition and responsibility of creating the statistical portrait of America Librarians value the Statistical Abstract as both an answer book and a guide to statistical sources Long time users of the Statistical

Secret Weapons and World War II Walter E. Grunden, 2005 Grunden s analysis of this fundamental flaw in the Japanese war effort seamlessly weaves together science technology and military history to provide an entirely unique look at a crucial but understudied aspect of World War II Comparing the science and weapons programs of all the major combatants he demonstrates that Japan s failure was nearly inevitable given its paucity of strategic resources an inadequate industrial base the absence of effective centralized management to coordinate research military hostility toward civilian scientists and bitter interservice rivalries In the end Japan could not overcome these obstacles and thus failed to make the transition to the kind of Big Science it needed to ward off its enemies and dominate the Far East
