Conceptualisation and Measurement of Financial Competence Manuel Förster, Mandy Hommel, 2025-09-30 This Open access book offers a pivotal contribution to the field of financial literacy research as it advances the understanding of financial literacy as a holistic competence encompassing cognition motivation emotion attitude behaviour and their interrelationships It provides a comprehensive overview and evaluation of concepts constructs and frameworks related to financial literacy and instruments used to measure financial competence The work also discusses identification synthesis and systematisation of a wide range of cognitive and non cognitive influences on financial behaviour The book not only introduces a unique holistic model of financial competence but also presents a draft of an innovative technology based test instrument designed to simulate and trace complex financial decision making processes and elucidate challenges confronted in complex problem solving situations The aim of this book is to shift from an isolated focus on individual cognitive facets mainly knowledge to a holistic modeling of competence in order to systematise the landscape of research on financial literacy and financial competence The work is instrumental for researchers educators and policymakers in advancing their understanding and methodologies and in paving the way for effective financial education interventions and promoting financially competent behaviour

Economic Literacy, 1985 The Routledge Handbook of Financial Literacy Gianni Nicolini, Brenda J. Cude, 2021-12-30 Financial literacy and financial education are not new topics even though interest in these topics among policymakers financial authorities and academics continues to grow The Routledge Handbook of Financial Literacy provides a comprehensive reference work that addresses both research perspectives and practical applications to financial education This is the first volume to summarize the milestones of research in financial literacy from multiple perspectives to offer an overview The book is organized into six parts The first three parts provide a conceptual framework which discusses what financial literacy is how it should be measured and explains why it represents a relevant topic and effective tool in enhancing decision making among consumers as well as consumer protection strategies Part IV addresses the connection between financial education and financial literacy with chapters about financial education in school settings as well as for adults This part includes an analysis of the role of Fintech and the use of gamification in financial education Part V is a collection of contributions that analyze financial literacy and financial education around the world with a focus on geographical areas including the U S South America Western Europe Eastern Europe Asia and Africa This part also considers how financial literacy should be addressed in the case of Islamic finance The concluding part of the book examines how financial literacy is related to other possible approaches to consumer finance and consumer protection addressing the relationships between financial literacy and behavioral economics financial well being and financial inclusion This volume is an indispensable reference for scholars who are new to the topic including undergraduate and graduate students and for experienced researchers who wish to enrich their knowledge policymakers seeking a broader understanding and an international perspective and practitioners who seek knowledge of best practices as well as innovative approaches
