excesses through its decisions over the last half century Police are nine times more likely to kill African American men than they are other Americans in fact nearly one in every thousand will die at the hands or under the knee of an officer As eminent constitutional scholar Erwin Chemerinsky powerfully argues this is no accident but the horrific result of an elaborate body of

doctrines that allow the police and crucially the courts to presume that suspects especially people of color are guilty before being charged Today in the United States much attention is focused on the enormous problems of police violence and racism in law enforcement Too often though that attention fails to place the blame where it most belongs on the courts and specifically on the Supreme Court A smoking gun of civil rights research Presumed Guilty presents a groundbreaking decades long history of judicial failure in America revealing how the Supreme Court has enabled racist practices including profiling and intimidation and legitimated gross law enforcement excesses that disproportionately affect people of color For the greater part of its existence Chemerinsky shows deference to and empowerment of the police have been the modus operandi of the Supreme Court From its conception in the late eighteenth century until the Warren Court in 1953 the Supreme Court rarely ruled against the police and then only when police conduct was truly shocking Animating seminal cases and justices from the Court's history Chemerinsky who has himself litigated cases dealing with police misconduct for decades shows how the Court has time and again refused to impose constitutional checks on police all the while deliberately gutting remedies Americans might use to challenge police misconduct Finally in an unprecedented series of landmark rulings in the mid 1950s and 1960s the pro defendant Warren Court imposed significant constitutional limits on policing Yet as Chemerinsky demonstrates the Warren Court was but a brief historical aberration a fleeting liberal era that ultimately concluded with Nixon's presidency and the ascendance of conservative and originalist justices whose rulings in Terry v Ohio 1968 City of Los Angeles v Lyons 1983 and Whren v United States 1996 among other cases have sanctioned stop and frisks limited suits to reform police departments and even abetted the use of lethal chokeholds Written with a lawyer's knowledge and experience Presumed Guilty definitively proves that an approach to policing that continues to exalt Dirty Harry can be transformed only by a robust court system committed to civil rights In the tradition of Richard Rothstein's The Color of Law Presumed Guilty is a necessary intervention into the roiling national debates over racial inequality and reform creating a history where none was before and promising to transform our understanding of the systems that enable police brutality
