Jogdankar, A Leader's Destiny Elias Aboujaoude, 2024-05-21 A psychiatrist puts leadership on the couch with a provocative exploration of its crucial often ignored psychological and personal character foundations Elias Aboujaoude's distinctive exploration of leadership explains how our cultlike obsession with leadership gives narcissists and sociopaths an edge and results in leadership failure everywhere we look and how resisting the imperative to rise at all costs leaves many with an inferiority complex His takedown of the leadership industrial complex pokes a very sharp elbow into an industry seemingly united in a modern form of alchemy to create leadership gold a waste of time and money Aboujaoude vividly illustrates since leaders emerge from a unique combination of personal psychological and situational factors that cannot be easily controlled or manipulated no matter how gifted the executive coach This bracing take on a classic subject provides new insight into the way psychology aligns with the requirements of effective and happy leadership The result is to empower us to understand ourselves and step up if we have what it takes to lead or find equally rewarding often superior ways to achieve fulfillment if we don't Computational Methods for Risk Management in Economics and Finance Marina Resta, 2020-04-02 At present computational methods have received considerable attention in economics and finance as an alternative to conventional analytical and numerical paradigms This Special Issue brings together both theoretical and application oriented contributions with a focus on the use of computational techniques in finance and economics Examined topics span on issues at the center of the literature debate with an eye not only on technical and theoretical aspects but also very practical cases DeColonize EcoModernism! Ariel Salleh, 2024-12-12 In the 21st century the old colonial attitude of terra nullius meaning a vacant place free for the taking still lurks behind the global economic expropriation of peoples lands and bodies Today that theft is rationalised internationally by ecomodernist policy This book engages with the patriarchal colonial capitalist mindset of the contemporary Androcene and its threats to Life on Earth including global warming and nuclear risks mining and the gene trade the Fourth Industrial Revolution and digital coloniality Ariel Salleh spells out the social and ecological contradictions set in motion by neocolonialism Inspired by decolonial thinkers from Arturo Escobar to

Tyson Yunkaporta and critics of technology like Vandana Shiva and Shoshana Zuboff she argues that dispossession of First Nation peoples livelihoods is not healed by consumerism in the name of development Breaking with ecomodernist policy such as the tech fix of mainstream environmentalists Salleh contests the patriarchal colonial capitalist imperium and its advocacy of Green New Deals Earth Governance Sustainable Development Goals and Smart Futures Worldwide many decolonial activists see through the zero sum imagination and its Earth Summits Youth too is defying the capitalist ruling class extinction trajectory and some even challenge the fashionable post human ideology circulating in high tech quarters Beyond exchange value these Others of the Androcene are calling for self governing bioregional futures respectful of indigenous skills they want local food sovereign economies which meet people s needs while protecting nature s metabolic value Spelling out the biopolitical violence of digitalization and genetic engineering this book traces two decades of creative defiance by global peoples movements against the contradictions of ecomodernist development and its ongoing imposition by nation states and international agencies
