Third Series Library of Congress. Copyright Office, 1949 Includes Part 1A Books and Part 1B Pamphlets Serials and Contributions to Periodicals The Social Studies, 1921 Historical Outlook, 1920 Army and Navy Journal, 1924 Baldwin of the Times Robert Davies, 2011-10-15 Hanson W Baldwin was America's best known military writer and analyst in the 20th century covering conflicts from World War II to the Vietnam War. He was the military editor of the New York Times for forty years and his dispatches from Guadalcanal and the Western Pacific won him a Pulitzer Prize in 1943. This first biography of this Naval Academy graduate begins with an appreciation of the human and literary values learned from his Baltimore newspaper family. His midshipman years 1920-1924 taught him the value of concentration. After three years of active service he chose the life of a professional writer. A few days before the 1929 stock market crash he joined the New York Times as a reporter. His career was advanced by the patronage of the Times publisher and by the talk of another European war in 1937. He won a Pulitzer Prize in 1943 for his Guadalcanal series. After 1945 he thought the atomic bomb to be of limited use on the battlefield as well as in the politics of the Cold War. His news scoops upset many but were in keeping with his determination to tell his readers what its government was doing. His continuing criticism of Secretary McNamara's management of the Vietnam War and the Times management's annoyance with his pro-war position contributed to his decision to retire in March 1968. Later he could only observe and to complain over the decline of American values and its harmful effects on the military. After his retirement he continued to write articles on military affairs for the news columns and Op Ed page of the New York Times High Schools of Vermont, 1924 Aviation, 1929 Catalog of Copyright Entries.
